CAVALEON 1959

CORAL GABLES SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL
CORAL GABLES, FLA.

Soaring, soaring, ever upward . . . majestic and seemingly effortless flight . . . new horizons, new attainments . . . the flight of a bird is like that of a student . . . from a downy chick to a swooping falcon . . . from an unsophisticated sophomore to a young adult ready for life and what it may bring . . .

just as the bird spreads its wings to glide through blue skies we soar higher and higher on the wings of ambition and success . . . symbolic and beautiful . . . we have chosen birds, the graceful creatures of the sky, as the theme of CAVALEON 1959.

PRESENTING CORAL GABLES SENIOR

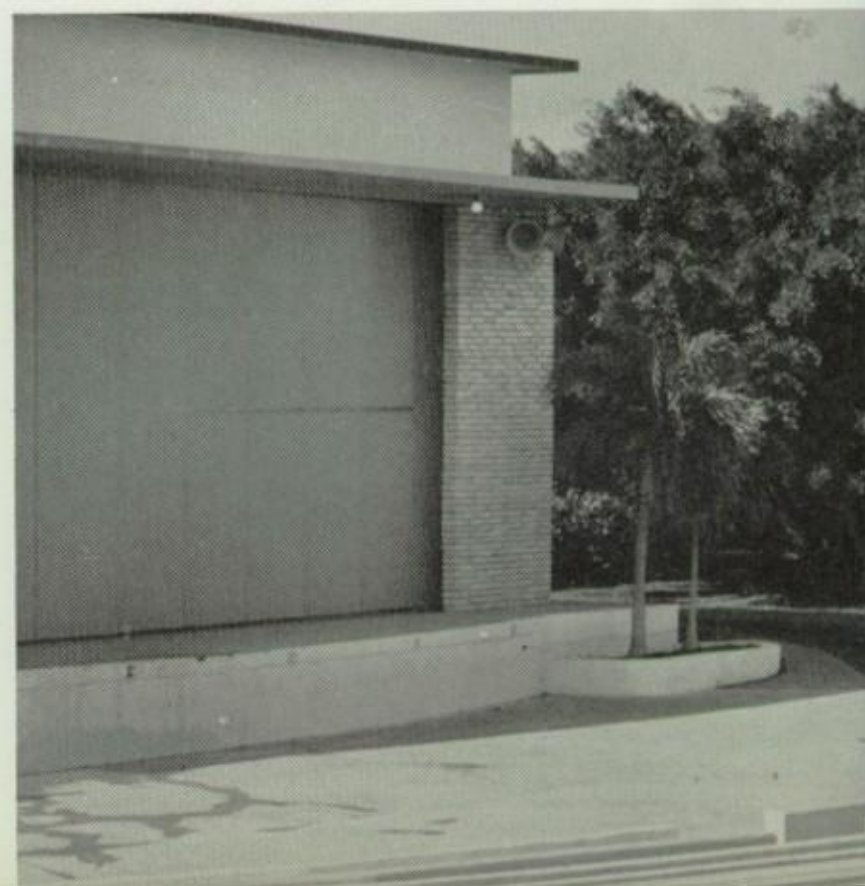

These geometric modern doors are a familiar sight to every Gableite.

Our amphitheatre is just one example of the

Our circular shaped auditorium is the scene of many assemblies and school presentations.

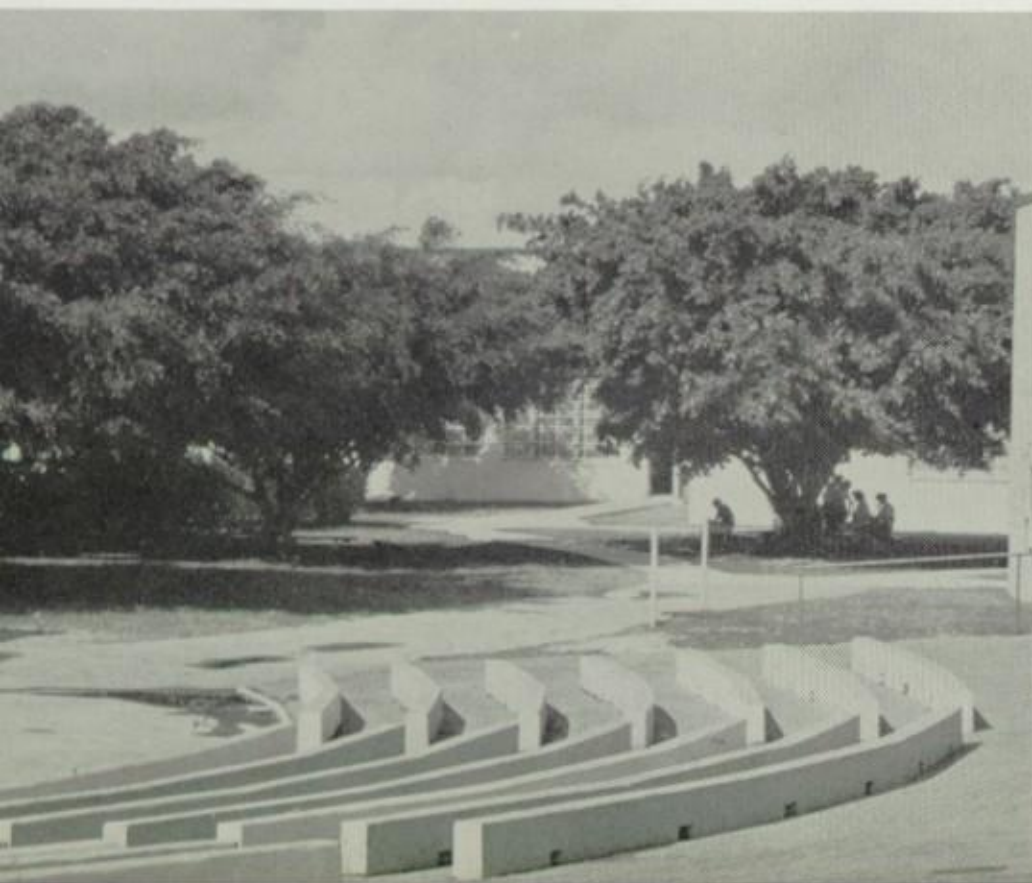

HIGH ... THE SCHOOL OF DISTINCTION

Within these portals, an enterprising community strives to keep Gables on top.

Excellent facilities offered to the student body.

The School of Distinction . . . Coral Gables Senior High School has truly earned this title. Through the years Gables has expanded and progressed, and today it is undisputedly a School of Distinction in all fields.

The School of Distinction had its beginning in 1926 as Ponce de Leon High School. Mr. Harry N. Rath became principal in 1932 and he began at once to shape the school for the greatness and distinction it was eventually to attain.

The student body has always been known as the Coral Gables Cavaliers and our yearbook has been known as the Cavaleon—CAVA from Cavaliers and LEON from Ponce de Leon.

As the population of the city increased so did that of the school, and in 1950 the school was moved to a new location at Bird and LeJeune roads.

Today Gables' beautiful buildings, situated on 26 acres, make up a thriving community of 2300 students and instructors. School work and school life are tops. The superb teaching is shown in the unsurpassable quality of work that Gables students produce. This year Gables had 19 Merit Scholarship Finalists, a number unequaled by any other school in Florida. Once again our football team is Big Ten and State Champions. Our newspaper has been rated second in the State and our 1958 Cavaleon won a first place rating in the nation. We have the honor of being recognized as one of the 29 top schools in the nation by two national magazines.

Gables is truly a School of Distinction . . . distinct and outstanding in its caliber of students, in its athletic and scholastic attainments, in its fine, well-qualified teachers, and in its superior show of school spirit and good sportsmanship.

TOP ADMINISTRATORS GUIDE GABLES

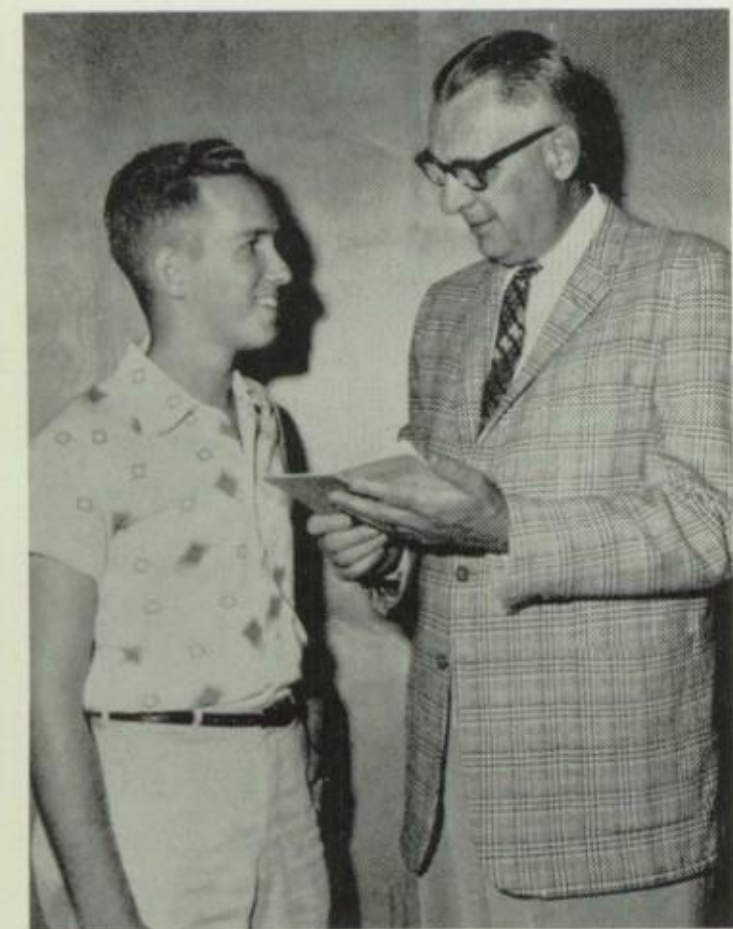

Mr. Harry N. Rath, an accomplished pianist as well as a great educator, sparks numerous school functions with his vast repertoire which includes anything from classical music to progressive jazz.

Mr. Harry N. Rath and Gables have been together since 1932. Under Mr. Rath's capable and excellent guidance, Gables has become a nationally recognized school. His personal interest in the scholastic achievement of each student inspires all to seek higher ideals, deeper understanding, and greater knowledge.

Our Mr. Rath was among the five finalists in the selection of the Principal of the Year for 1958-59. This year we have a new, enthusiastic pep-song which was written by Mr. Rath. Just as Mr. Rath is proud of Gables, so is Gables proud of Mr. Rath.

Through the capable guidance of Mr. Rath, our students achieve phenomenal success in every field of endeavor.

Mr. Rath's personal interest in the student body has made him a friend to all.

HIGH STUDENTS THROUGH FINEST YEAR

Our competent Deans, Mrs. Louise Stewart and Mr. Edwin Cook, have a wide variety of duties to perform. During the school day one can often walk by the deans' offices and see them in conference with teachers, parents, and students concerning such problems as discipline, absences, or transfers and withdrawals. The deans, loyal Gableites, attend all school functions and help plan many of them. There are many behind-the-scene jobs, such as supervising our beautiful grounds and buildings and helping to put out the daily bulletin, that are the responsibility of our capable deans.

MRS. LOUISE STEWART
Dean of Girls

Our school registrar, Mrs. Agneta Heldt, is a very busy member of Gables' staff. Under her direction are the multitude of records of over two thousand students.

MR. EDWARD COOK
Dean of Boys

P.T.A. PROMOTES PARENT-SCHOOL UNITY

P.T.A. OFFICERS — Finkelstein, Recording Secretary; Christiansen, Treasurer; Rath, Holdcraft, President; Woolley, Corresponding Secretary; Beckwith, Vice-President.

The Coral Gables High Parent Teacher Association plans many activities to promote closer relationship between home and school. This year the P.T.A. sponsored a "Get Acquainted Party" for each class. These after-school get togethers enabled students to become better acquainted with members of their class. P.T.A.'s Annual Chicken Dinner gave parents and students an opportunity to spend an enjoyable evening together. Aside from these projects the P.T.A. has meetings, each with an interesting program, during the year.

OUR SCIENTISTS LED THE WAY

MR. ABBOTT MESSLER

With the increasing complexity of the world in which we live, science and math have taken the spotlight. Coral Gables High School is fortunate in having two of the finest instructors in these fields as members of its faculty.

Though sophomores (and non-scientist members of the student body) are overawed at their complex terminology, we have a serene feeling that the world of the future will be safe and reasonably happy with men of their caliber instructing its future scientists.

It is with great pleasure that we dedicate Cavaleon 1959 to Mr. Abbott Messler and Mr. Robert Parent. Through their inspiring instruction and capable guidance Gables has reached the top in the fields of science and math.

MR. ROBERT PARENT

What's that $2x(3-x)^2=6$??? Studying science and math has a lighter side too as these Ipana smiles indicate.

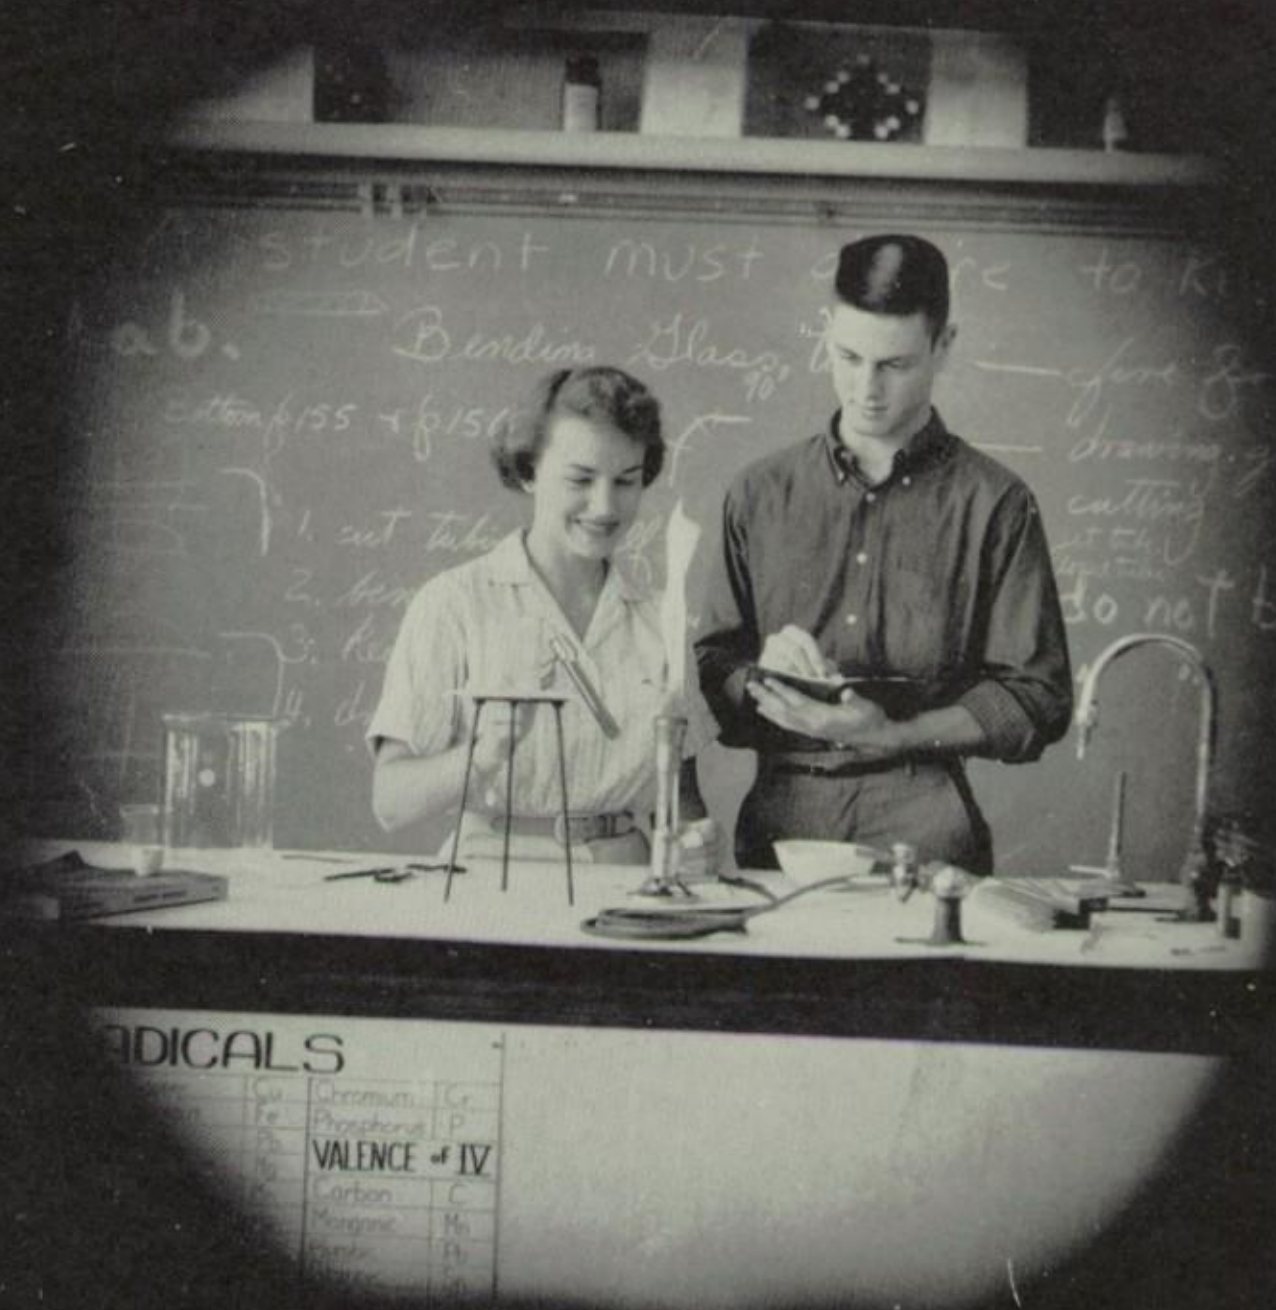

Exhilaration

the joy received from a job well done . . . the long-awaited call for that special date . . . the expectations of a carefree weekend . . . the elated expressions of the students when Gables is winning a game . . . pride felt by the student body when the school is awarded honors . . . the satisfaction of making new and lasting friendships . . . the fun and excitement of pep assemblies, games, dances, parties . . . different sources combining to produce an exhilarating life for Gables' students.

Contemplation

the quiet hours of study for tomorrow's exams . . . the tranquility of the campus in the early morning . . . one's own interpretation of a word, question, or story . . . the comfort of sharing thoughts and ideas with others . . . the studious realm of the library . . . the mass movement of students from class to class . . . the gathering of friends for gabfests and discussions . . . togetherness and aloneness . . . for each has his own private reflections and dreams for happiness and success.

Anticipation

*the desire by all for a favorable year . . . looking forward
. . . with hope for a good grade on tomorrow's test . . .
with joy for that special date . . . with mixed emotions over tonight's approaching game . . . the eagerness of the sophomores to be upperclassmen . . . the hope of the juniors for a fun-filled year . . . the expectations of the seniors for a successful future . . . each and all looking with great anticipation towards a bright and prosperous tomorrow.*

MISS MARY CECILE IONS
English Department Head

English, as the basis of our education, covers a wide range of subjects. Sophomores study Shakespeare's Julius Caesar while the juniors trace American literature from the historical writings of Benjamin Franklin to the contemporary poems of Carl Sandburg. In College Prep classes Seniors read such important works of English literature as Beowulf, Chaucer's Canterbury Tales, and Macbeth. Since a wide vocabulary enlivens everyday conversation, it is an important part of the English study each year. Grammar is also emphasized on all three levels. Honors classes, set at an accelerated pace, are provided for the rapid learner. Also included in the English curriculum are courses in speech, drama, debate, remedial reading and mythology.

ENGLISH . . .

Mr. Joe Morris died February 28, 1959, after suffering a heart attack. He was loved and respected by everyone who knew him. We feel that his wish would be that his teaching and affection live on in the minds and hearts of his students.

Reading over the term theme of some poor, unsuspecting student are Mrs. Clara Mae Hall, Miss Elizabeth Minton, and (standing) Miss Janet Jones and Mr. Joe Morris. From the fiendish grin on Mr. Morris' face, it must be a "panic."

Miss Daphne Yvars, debate coach, and Mr. David Feldman, drama teacher, gossip between classes. Cut out the line, Mr. Feldman, that's reserved for dramatics.

Here we have a glimpse of four of our learned English teachers, Mrs. Elizabeth Bowlby, Mrs. Roberta White, Miss Sally Schneckenburger, and Mrs. Ellen Callahan, verifying the authenticity of the word "cat!"

... BASIS OF ALL KNOWLEDGE

"Never a dull moment in English class," say College Prep teachers, Mrs. Helen Evans, and Mrs. Hattie Struthers, and General English teacher, Mr. Leon Dodez. What we want to know is, "Who told the joke?"

Mrs. Opal Canida, Mrs. Thelma McCoy, and Mrs. Janet Carvelli choose the next vocabulary for their classes . . . it should be so funny!

Senorita Eloise Patterson, Language department head, happily reads a Latin American newspaper to la clase de Espanol. (We catch up on our current events this way.)

Spanish, French, Latin, and German present to us the true picture of a country's language, people, and customs. Through language studies we acquire a greater understanding of our foreign neighbors which will help us to face more effectively the problems of a changing world. While Spanish is a language of immediate importance in this section of the country, Latin, French, and German help us to understand the roots of our own English language. Through the use of records and films we learn not only the language itself, but also the historical background of the foreign country. Tape recorders acquaint us with the spoken language and let us hear our progress in pronunciation. In addition to regular classes there are a number of extracurricular activities which enable us to put our knowledge to practical use.

LANGUAGE . . .

Mrs. Sue Piant and Mrs. Kathe Wilson, German and Latin teacher, review a map of the underworld. Don't worry, all good Latin teachers reach the Elysian Fields.

Ready? Ecrivez! Senorita Joan Reitsma is directed by our French teacher, Monsieur Thomas Campbell. Not all Spanish teachers get free French lessons.

Presenting our hard-working Guidance department; Mrs. Elizabeth Larson, Miss Helen Dunn, Mrs. Joanna Woltz, and Mrs. Harlette Prance. Four heads must be better than one.

... WINGS TO FOREIGN LANDS

Reviewing new material to assist students in choosing their careers are Mrs. Ruby Foxwell, Mr. Robert Jones and Mr. Lewis Caputa. What have they got in store for us???

These Spanish teachers really have it made! Mrs. Elizabeth Boone, Mrs. Gladys Bishop, and Miss Kathryn Goodwin listen to records as the class studies . . . ?

Another mystifying algebra problem is explained by head of the mathematics department, Mrs. Margaret East, Gables' answer to Pythagoras.

Theorems, slide rules, axioms—these are the by-words of the math students. Since the recent stress, a double accent has been placed on mathematics. This has proposed a challenge; we are meeting the challenge.

Realizing the importance of mathematics, students apply themselves to serious investigation of advance courses. From a basic knowledge of Algebra I, they progress to Plane Geometry, Algebra II, Solid Geometry, and finally Math Analysis, Trigonometry, and Calculas.

MATHEMATICS . . .

"Ma" Murray must have given Mr. Bill Byrd special instructions on angles at Ponce. Now he's using reverse tactics on "teacher."

Mrs. Mildred Durden and Mr. Robert Parent prepare their lesson plans for the next week, but from the appearance of the foreground, their classes must be tropical "Blackboard Jungles!"

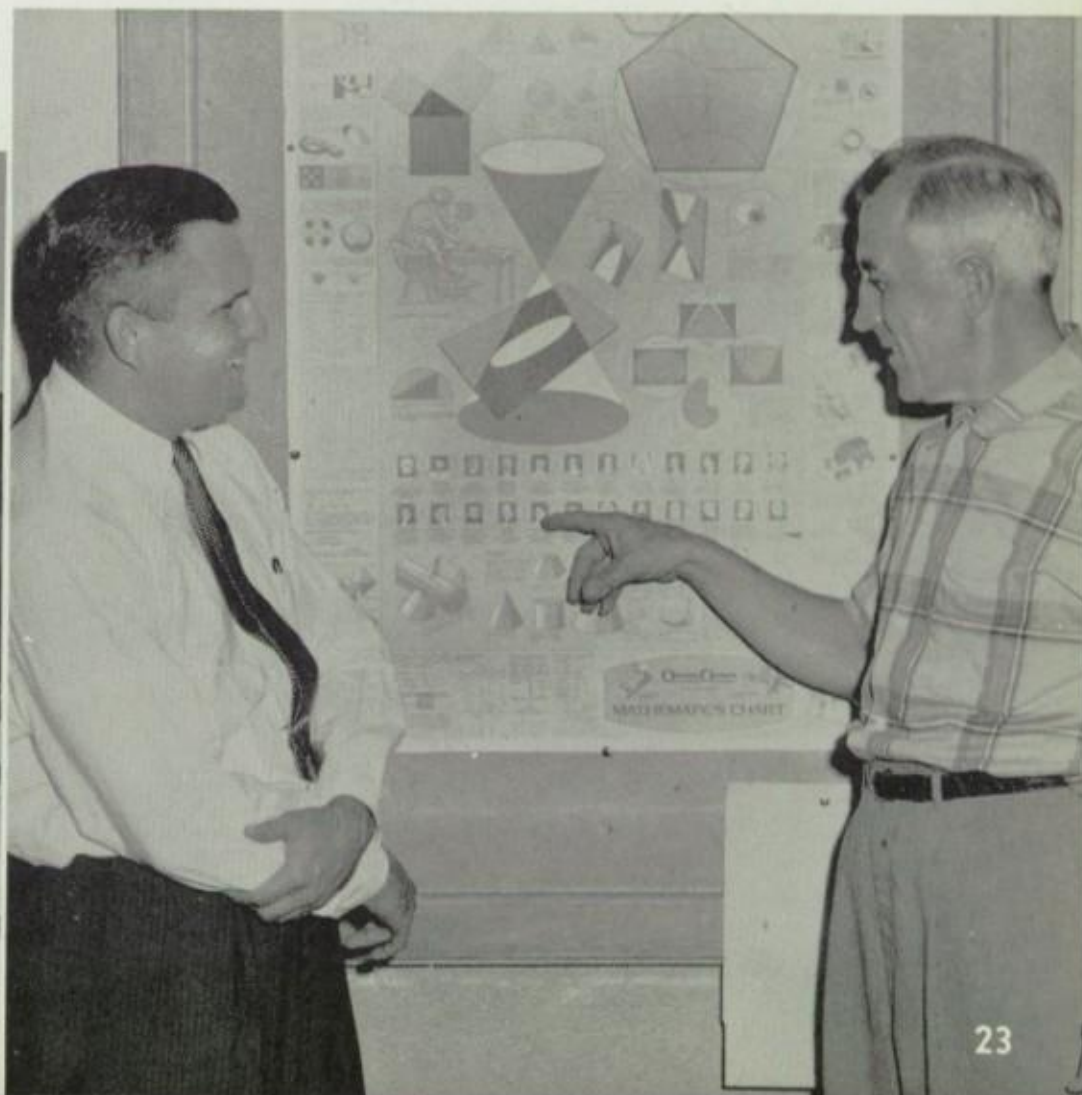

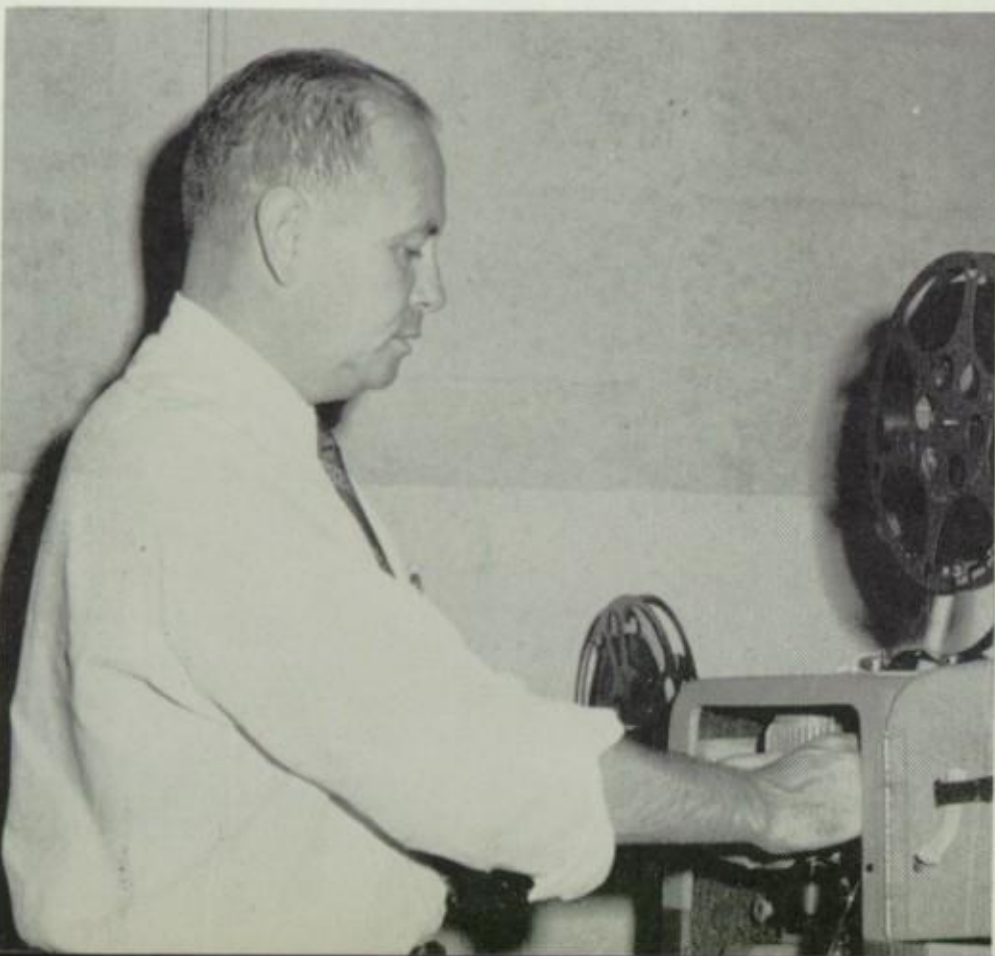

Mrs. Letetia Hinson and Mr. Irving Golfman take time out from grading papers to smile at the camera. Oh well, at least they enjoy their work.

... AGE OF THE ATLAS

Our aesthetic mathematicians Mr. David Wood and Mr. Fred Bils are admiring the beauty of angles and curves.

Mr. Ed Borden, algebra teacher and A.V. director, is master of blackboard, projector, and wit!

With the faith of a true positive thinker, Mr. Abott "Smiley" Messler, science department head, assures us that we, too, may conquer the baffling operations of a slide rule.

SCIENCE . . .

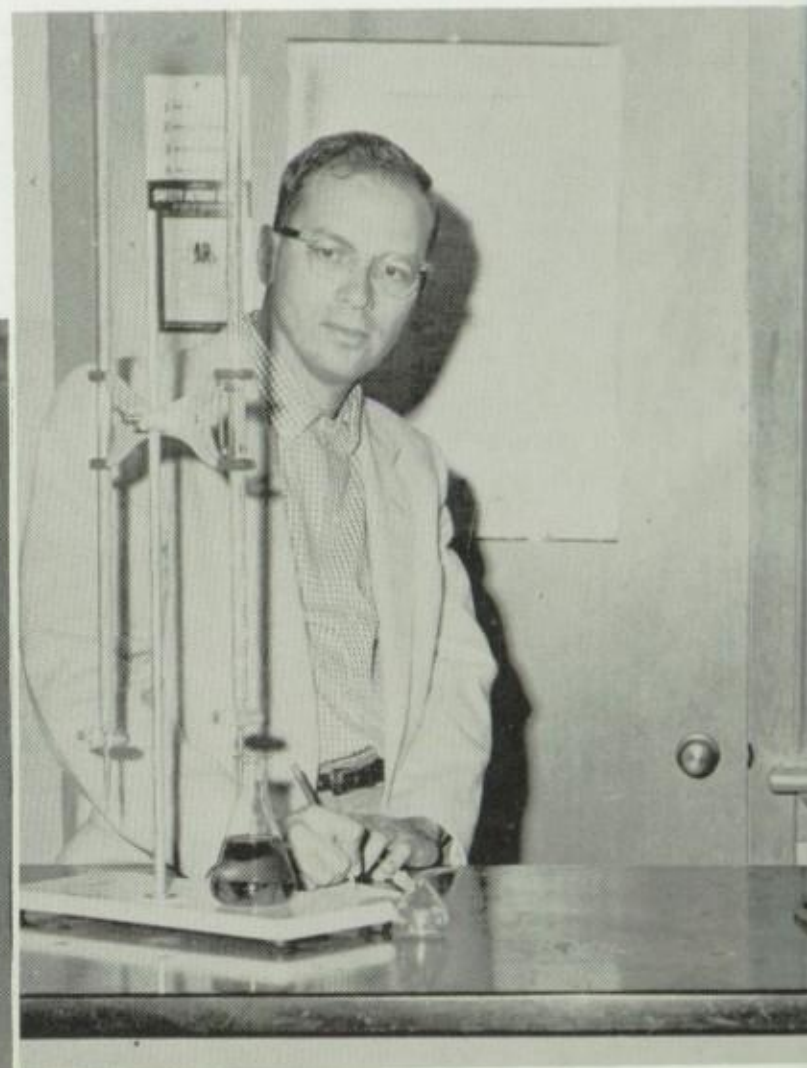

To cope with the recent accent on atomic energy, missiles, and nuclear weapons, a student must have a strong foundation in science. Numerous articles have been written on the importance of science preparation in high schools. The demand for specialists in all phases of science has greatly increased in the past few years. It is the aim of the science department to meet this demand.

As sophomores, students are offered biology as a basis for more technical courses. Juniors choose between scientific and practical chemistry in accordance with their plans for the future. Seniors are offered advanced courses such as physics, advanced biology, and advanced chemistry. A course in health and safety is also given.

Mrs. Sara Knupp and Mr. David Gregg show that even a simple experiment performed with accuracy and perseverance can be a total flop without a good lab partner.

Mr. Robert Drobner and Mr. Walter Bowlby cautiously approach their latest chemistry experiment. Don't worry Smiling gleefully, Miss Ann Gilkey presents Mr. Michael Kambour with a present . . . a snake? Never fear! That paisley vest will scare it away!

Mr. Luther Hoven warns Mrs. Dorothy Gregory, "Careful how you handle coralida spraychae. They prick!"

. . . ANSWERS THE CHALLENGE

trations never blow up.

Mr. Charles Addams (Donald) Gordon, joyfully points out to Mr. Herbert Wertz the science of the skulls! . . . heh, heh, heh! Anyone we know?

Having learned that all the quiz shows are really rigged, Miss Ethelyn Massey, history department head, has turned her back on television.

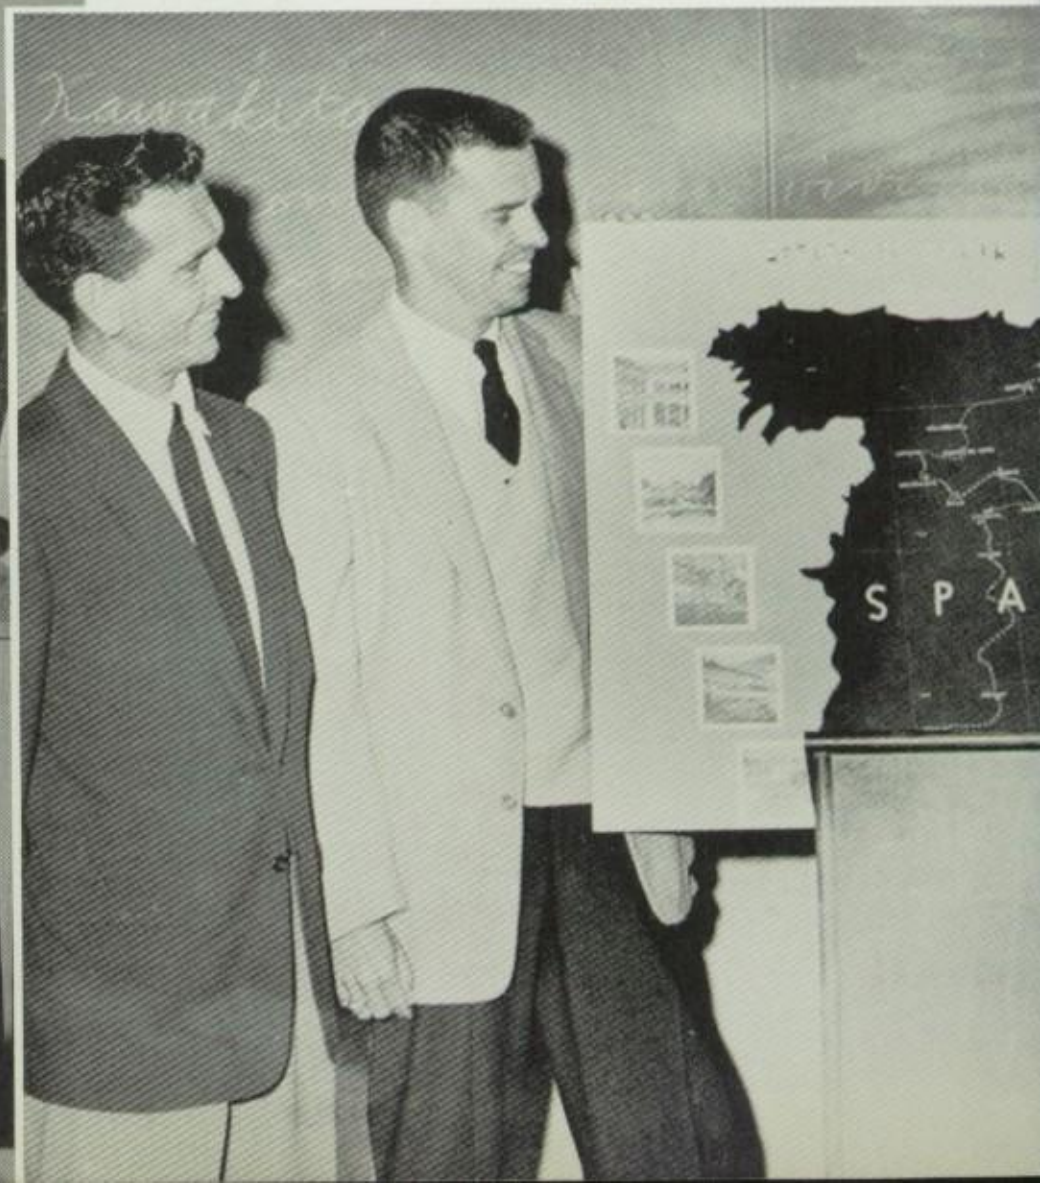

History, as a direct link to the past, enables us to live and function intelligently in a world as fast-moving as a satellite. To keep up this pace, we must understand our problems. And how can we fully understand the present unless we know the past? United States, Latin America, the World . . . all these are covered in social studies courses. In American history, Juniors learn about the beginnings of our country and its rise to the position it now holds. Seniors in American Government are acquainted with the inner workings of our democracy and the theories of the other systems of government. World History students study the cultures of many countries, past to present. Also included in the Social Studies department are courses in Latin American history and psychology.

SOCIAL STUDIES . . .

Mrs. Virginia Logan, Mr. William Fisher, and Miss Katherine Davis pass the time in pleasant discussion. Tennis, anyone?

They've got it! We think they've got it! "The rain in Spain stays mainly in the plain!" All together now, professors! Mr.

Mrs. Herberta Leonardy, psychology teacher, peers intently at the camera. Oh well, some people will try to psychoanalyze anything.

Mrs. Lois Cole, Mrs. Eleanor Wilson, and Miss Virginia Calloway certainly must be ordering some spicy magazines for our library.

... FLIGHT THROUGH CENTURIES

Files, files, files! This new system really grates on the teachers' nerves. Attending to the raspy business are Mr. Clarence Drepperd, Miss Katherine Megibben, and Miss Elizabeth Mott, of the history department.

Quentin Uumberhower? Mr. William Monroe? Mr. Bill Burrell? Mrs. Ruth Johnston? Alvin?!

The classes in our Business Education Department turn out hundreds of our nation's future executives, secretaries, and accountants. Courses in typing, shorthand, business math, accounting, business English, bookkeeping, and clerical practice fit into the curriculum of many students at Gables—guided by able and patient instructors. Typing and shorthand are taken by many students who are not business majors, to aid them in other fields of work in after-school years.

Mr. James Ballard, Business Department Head, seems to be having a terribly fascinating discussion—perhaps with a good-looking girl?

BUSINESS . . .

Do Mrs. Elsie Dewey, Mr. Fred Wilson, and Mrs. Ruth Hamrick have a Mad comic hidden behind that typing book?? Certainly looks suspicious.

Judging from the smiles on the faces of Mrs. Charlotte Cleland, Miss Essie Shepler, and Mrs. Helen Zacur that sentence must contain an unbelievable error (or maybe just a right answer??).

Mrs. Agnes Ewald, Registrar; Mrs. Barbara Burdick, Bookroom; and Miss Dianne Boerger, Guidance Secretary, certainly found something to divert their attention.

Mrs. Dorothy Lund pounds a mean typewriter as Mr. John Bianco cheers approvingly.

... POTENTIAL TYCOONS

Working the ever-busy switchboard are Mrs. Margaret Richards, Mrs. Margaret Fernandez, attendance; and Miss Dorothy Serna, Mr. Rath's secretary. With three such competent people, no wonder our calls come in so straight!

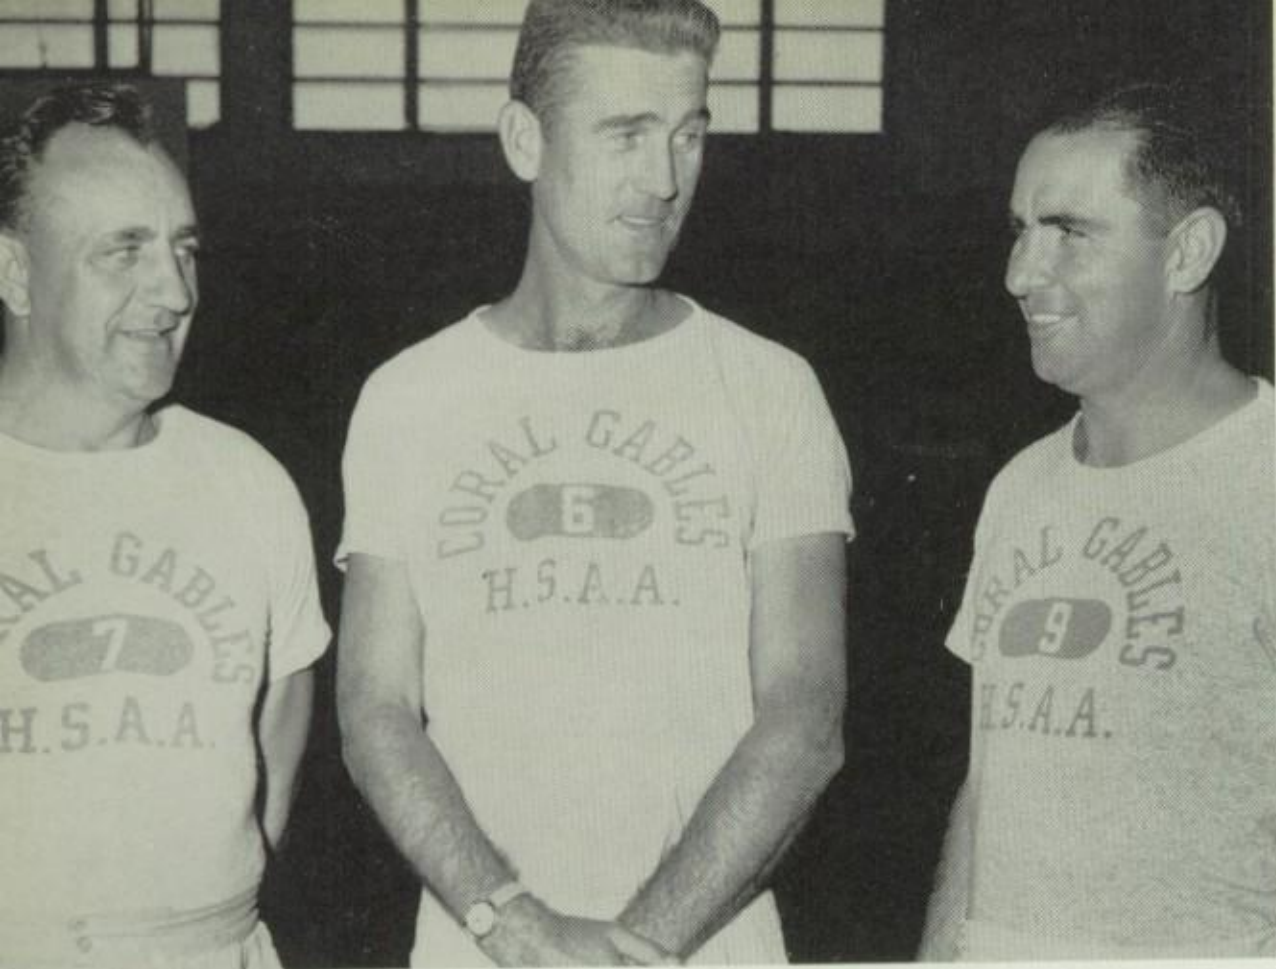

Mrs. Catherine Blakey

Mrs. Janet Burd

Mr. Mitchell Menacof and Mrs. Valera Mayfield can't seem to synchronize their eyes. (Wonder what's orbiting in the room???)

The Lineup complete with numbers. Anyone recognize the guilty one? Coaches Joe Krutulis, Charles Harris, and Ed Injaychock are trying to be nonchalant.

Although present-day emphasis is on developing our minds, we must not forget the importance of keeping our bodies in good condition. It is the aim of the Physical Education Department to provide students with the knowledge and means of keeping themselves physically fit, thereby promoting good health. A student taking Physical Education learns not only the skills of sports, rhythm, and coordination, but the rules for good posture, health habits, and sportsmanship.

PHYS. ED. CONDITIONS US . . .

Coral Gables' answer to Brigitte Bardot: Mrs. Ethel Steele, Mrs. Helen Smith, and Mrs. Maria Hornor.

Coach Rice is giving tips on how to win to Coaches Jack McCloskey and Ed Stoeckel. Personally, we think it's the Derby.

Mrs. Marguerite Cleveland and Mrs. Dolores Knapp (and the other dear) are discussing the artistic value of this portrait of birds!

You're right; We are in the Village. And these Beatniks, Mr. Earle Bassett and Mrs. Anne George, are wallowing in piles and piles of clothesline art.

... ARTISTIC SKILLS A MUST

Although a great deal of emphasis has been placed on the scientific technology, artistic skills also hold a place of importance in education.

Art provides a basis for a sound classical education. Mechanical and architectural drawing are helpful in preparation for careers in related fields. Shop and home economics, too, are interesting as well as necessary for a fully-rounded education.

These gentlemen, Mr. Dean Thomas and Mr. Paul Feinerer, are putting their hearts into this job—for one day they hope to be magicians that cut ladies in half.

Football! What exciting memories that word brings to mind; because this was a big year, full of big games and big scores. But the first big score was against Gables as a powerful Edison downed the Cavaliers in a 19 to 14 thriller. However our boys aren't ones to stay under for long, and in the next weeks they systematically trampled Lakeland, Edgewater, Lee, Jackson, and Fort Lauderdale. Suddenly the most important event of the season was before us, our homecoming game with Miami High. 15,000 fans gathered on that fateful night of November 13, and the ones who cheered the crimson and gray were jubilant. The final score read Gables 13, Miami High 12. It had been a homecoming we would never forget. Then Thanksgiving approached and with it the annual Southwest game. The Cavaliers marched off the field with a 19-7 tally to their credit. Poll after poll ranked Gables first in the state and first we were because we had become State and Big Ten Champions. Only one thing was undecided, the city championship. However, not even Gables could be the first to beat Miami High twice in a row. And so another thrilling season ended; the two great schools were tied for city honors but the mighty Cavaliers led the Big Ten and State.

BABY CAVS POSE FUTURE THREAT

This is the beginning of the story. Here is where strenuous practice, constant playing, and skillful training start to pay off. On the junior varsity team players gain their most valuable asset, experience, and develop that drive and spirit for which Coral Gables is famous.

The Baby Cavaliers worked hard this year, earning victories over such teams as Hialeah, Palm Beach, Southwest, Palmetto, and North Miami. Working just as hard were Coach Rice, former Gables star, Denny Kline and Coach Wood. They have been rewarded by a team that shows great promise for coming seasons.

CAVALIER CAGERS MOVE SWIFTLY

Gable's number one guard, Kenny Levitt, pulls a reverse action and scores two points against Miami High.

This year's varsity was keyed to one objective—Rebuilding. The team went into the basketball season green because of the loss of all but three lettermen and the strong offensive scorers of last year. The varsity started off slowly, but - to the amazement of their opponents and the spectators they improved steadily and rapidly. The defense started rolling and did a superb job of stopping and stealing their opponent's ball. As the team progressed outstanding scores were racked up by Wally Dale and Woody Woodward. Senior John Karabasz's height, once confined to tennis, proved to be a real asset in his first year on the team. The boys quickly recovered from their slow start and were soon a major competitor for the District and State tournaments, with a good chance of surpassing the previous records held by Gables hoopsters.

The J.V.'s started off their season with crushing victories over all opponents who dared to meet them. They gathered in victory after victory in their attempt to be the best Junior Varsity our school has ever had. Andy Palmer, Marty Gateman, and Gene Franzen were all consistent on the backboard, and combined with Bruce Fischer and Allan Davis they composed a team that was hard to beat.

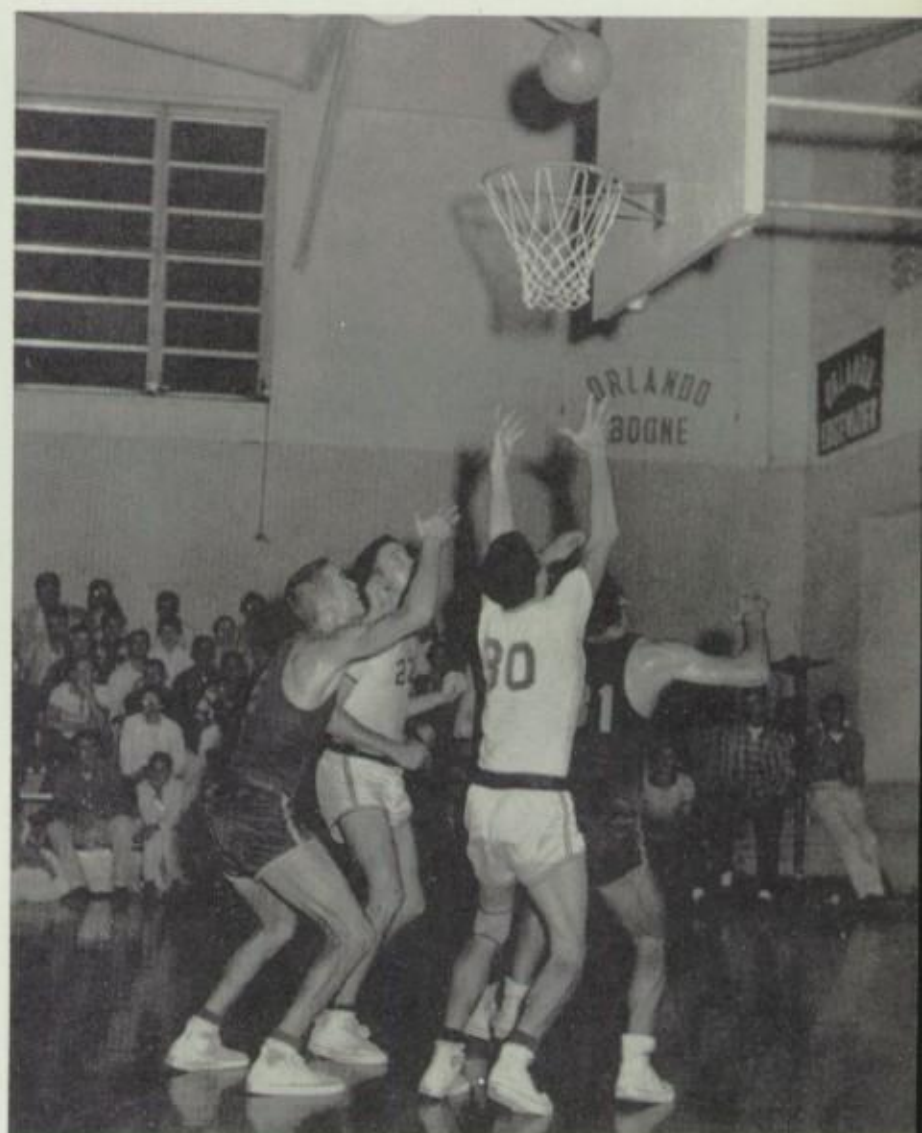

TO SECURE SUCCESSIVE WINS

PASS 100 MARK IN WINS

Season after season the Coral Tennis Team captures and holds the title of being the best high school team in the State. Since 1948 the netters have downed each and every team that they have faced. At the close of the latest season they reached an incredible total of 101 consecutive victories. One of the reasons for this amazing record is that Gables is fortunate in having Mr. William Fisher as coach. Since he came to Gables in 1956, the team has steadily progressed match after match. The combination of coach and squad has made our team consistently great. Letterman Frank Froehling, listed as one of the nation's eight best tennis players in the 18 and under group, sparked the group with repeated victories. Two other lettermen, John Karabasz and John Jameison have also slammed their way to numerous championships. The girls' end of the team was well taken care of by Joann Basalyga, Sue Esslinger, Gerry Gustafson, Katherine Myers, and Joan Saunders. Five new members this year promise to bring continued success in the future.

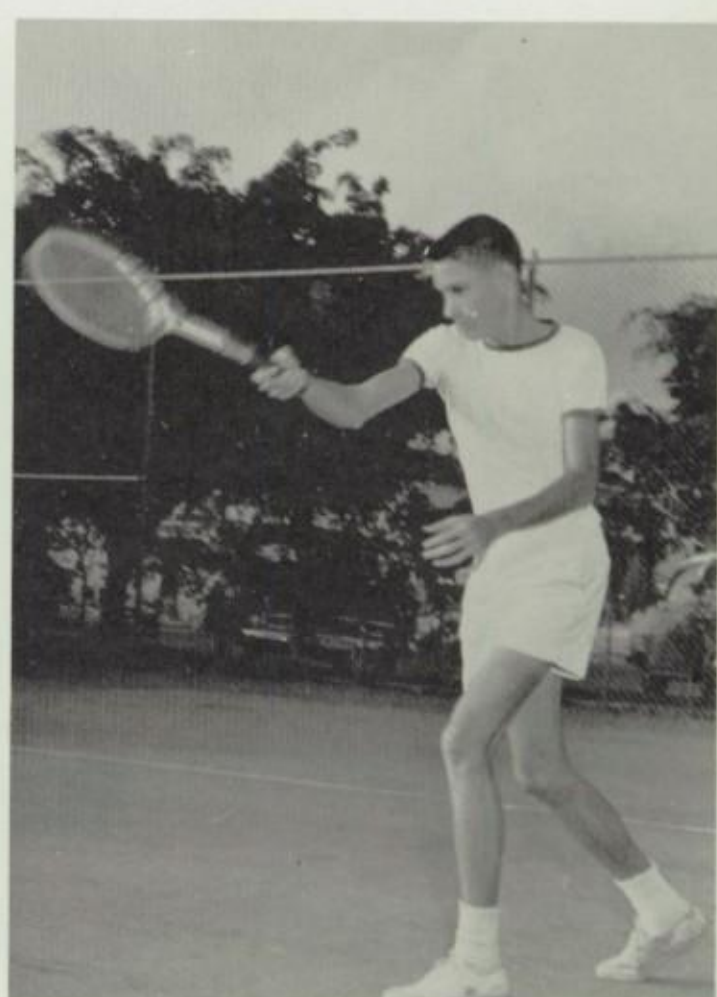

Coach William Fisher, who has led our Gables' team through four successful years, aids John Jameison in improving his serve.

Bill Davis, who has helped to keep our team on top during his three years at Gables, returns a low net shot.

Joann Basalyga, a new member of the girls' team, flips a fast return to win another match.

Captain Frank Froehling, listed as one of the nation's eight top players, follows through to return an opponent's ball and win the match.

CAVALIER CINDERMEN VIE

Joe Auer goes easily up and over demonstrating the expert form needed for championship pole-vaulting.

As in previous years, the Coral Gables cindermen opened the year's track schedule against a powerful South Dade team. Victorious lettermen, who saw themselves become state champs in 1958, were called on again this year to defend the title. Mile, half-mile, and quarter-mile runners Bryant Aumack, Bill Niblock, and John Grose once again pounded the turf in adding more records to Gables High.

Coaches Ed Injaychock and Jack McCloskey were particularly happy that of the sixty-five who went out for track this year, twenty-five were sophomores.

Frank Lasky, who is ranked third in the state in shot and discus throws, returned this year to try to better his past records. Clearing the high hurdles for Gables was last year's letterman Tom Little, who is one of the best high hurdlers in the state. Pacing the cindermen toward the State Meet were lettermen Bob Allen, Paul Beck, and Randy Cox.

After this season's tough schedule against local teams, Coach Injaychock hopes to march his team forward to the Florida Relays and the Regional and State Meets. Joe Auer and Bob Sutton helped the team to give its very best performance.

TO MAINTAIN STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Randy Martin and Tom Little leap high to clear the hurdles with ease showing the technique necessary for repeated success.

Aumack, Allen, Niblock, Watson, and Grose ease through a preliminary practice run.

With the crack of the gun, Brannan, Batt, Auer, McCarthy, and Cox spring into action for the 100-yard dash.

Letterman and veteran track star Frank Lasky strains to put the shot during practice.

GOLF TEAM HAS TRIUMPHANT SEASON

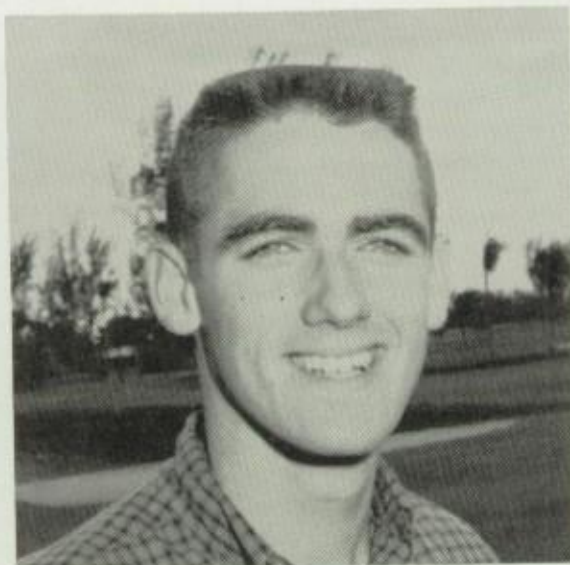

Members of the Golf team are Moffett, Mogg, Holloway, Fink, Montgomery, Kennedy, Dunwoody, Silbert.

Following in the Gables great athletic traditions, our golfers brought many honors to the school year. Coached by Mr. Clarence Drepperd and captained by Mike Silbert, the team swung victoriously through match after match. The return of Bob Moffett and John Montgomery gave the linksters the needed experience. The only girl on the team, veteran Joan Fink, was well-able to hold her own with boys. Newcomers William Dunwoody, Charles Hastie, Len Holloway, and Bill Kennedy proved themselves as valuable players.

SWIMMERS SMASH STATE RECORDS

Dave Disspain, Jim Mairs, Bob Magruder, Art Paterson, and Jim FitzGibbon prepare to display their ability in a practice sprint.

"Splash!" and the Coral Gables swimming team went into its 7th successful season at Gables High. The boys started this season with a sensational past record of 106 victories and only two defeats. Last year Coach Bill Burrell's swimmers did such a thorough job that Coral Gables now holds all the Big Ten swimming records.

The girls, led by the twin jets, Joyce Argo and Barbara Chesneau, have splashed to a total record of 74 wins, 27 losses, and 1 tie. They hold three state and six city and county championships.

Leading this year's team into battle are graduating lettermen, Jim Fitzgibbon and Art Paterson.

Each of these seniors has held numerous swimming records while at Gables. Bob Magruder and Mike Clein did the breaststroke while Dave Disspain handled the butterfly and back events.

Ward O'Connell, diving coach, says that Grant LeRoux is the heavy favorite to win the State Diving Championship.

The one factor among several that has made such a record for our swimmers possible is the desire and determination of the new swimmers who join us each year to become great and work to preserve the integrity of the record.

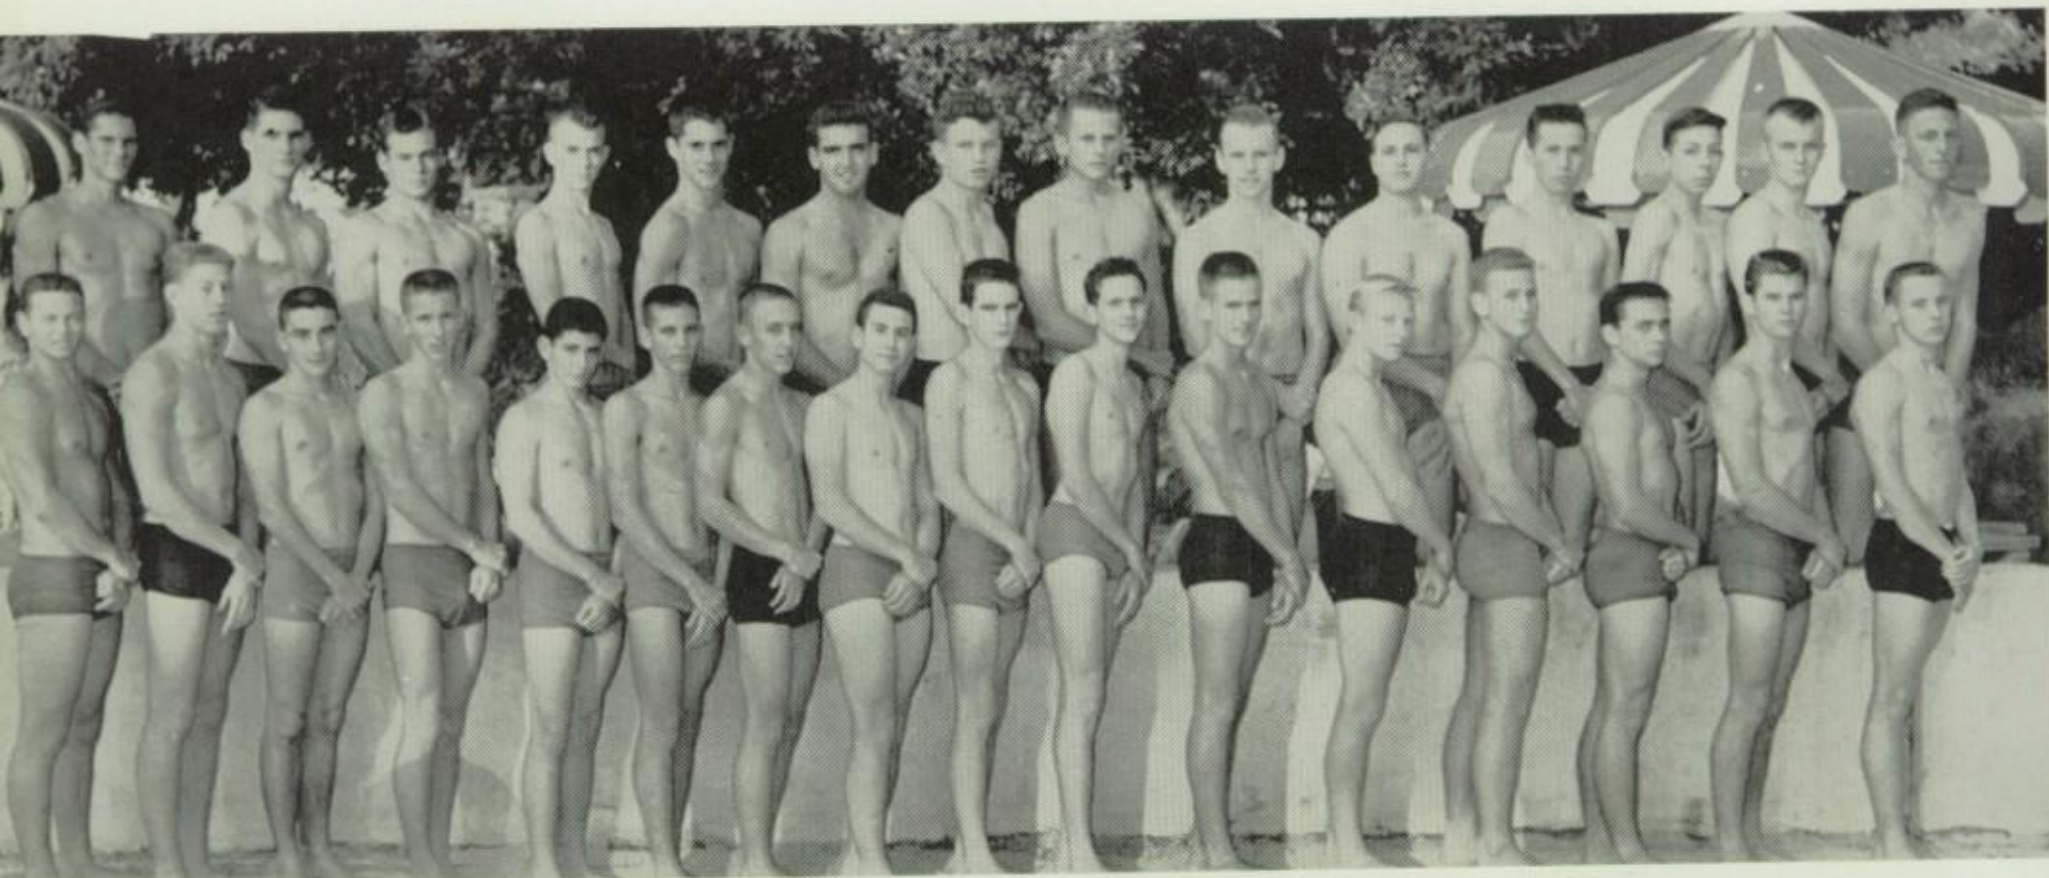

John Bernard and Dave Disspain give a final burst of speed for a close finish in the 100 yard print.

GABLES TANKERS MADE "VICTORY"

BOYS' TEAM—First row: Art Patterson, John Bernard, Bill Daniels, Dave Bond, Ronnie Rohan, Mike Todd, Hollis Caffel, Bob Hiller, Doug Magruder, Jules Stiber, Mike Fuller, Dennis Witte, Bob Clein, Grant Le Roux, Jim FitzGibbon, Jim Mairs. Second row: Ralph Dodge, Bob Magruder, Dave Disspain, Tom Lamar, Jim Studeman, Efram Suarez, Hugh Gingras, Ken Benson, Curtis Mosso, Ian Rudnick, Mike Adamick, Rice Bullock, Hugh Winslow, Mike Clein.

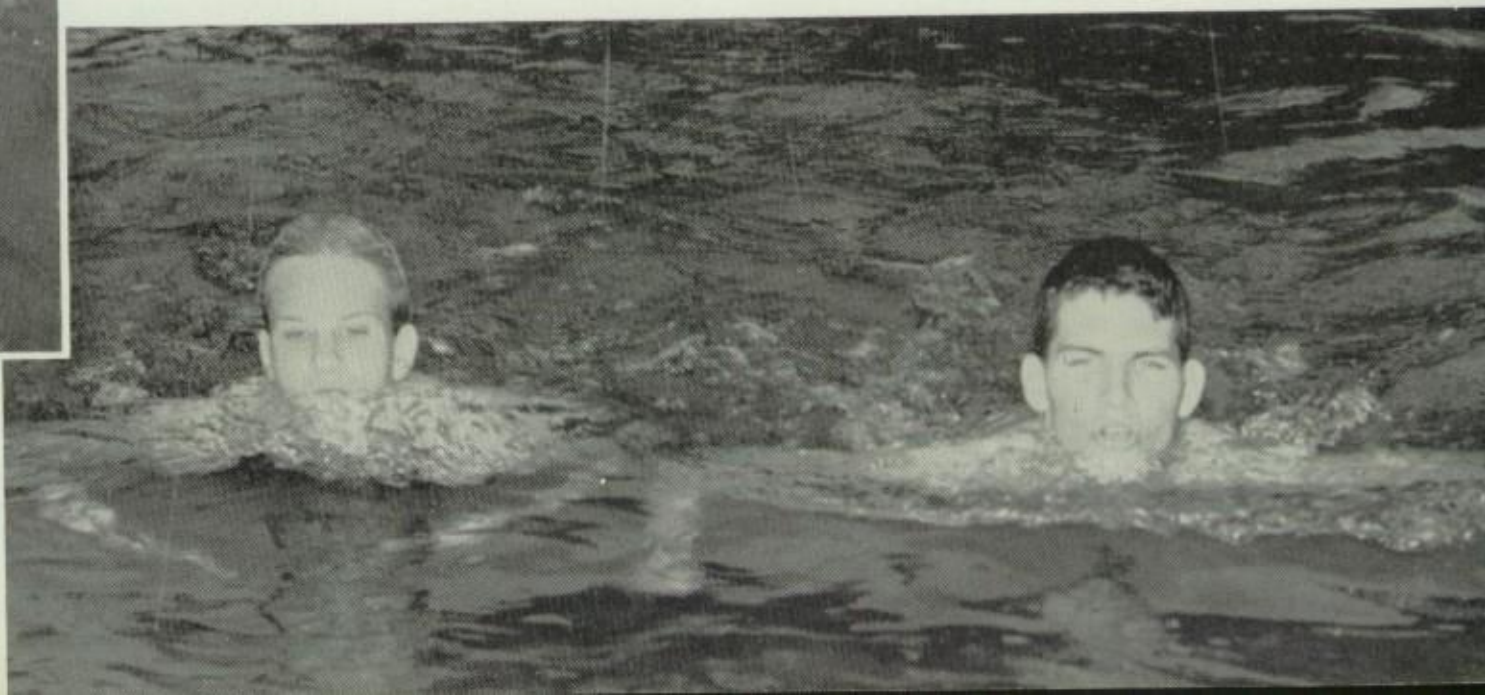

Sally Silbert, who has been a dependable swimmer during her three years at Gables, demonstrates a backstroke turn.

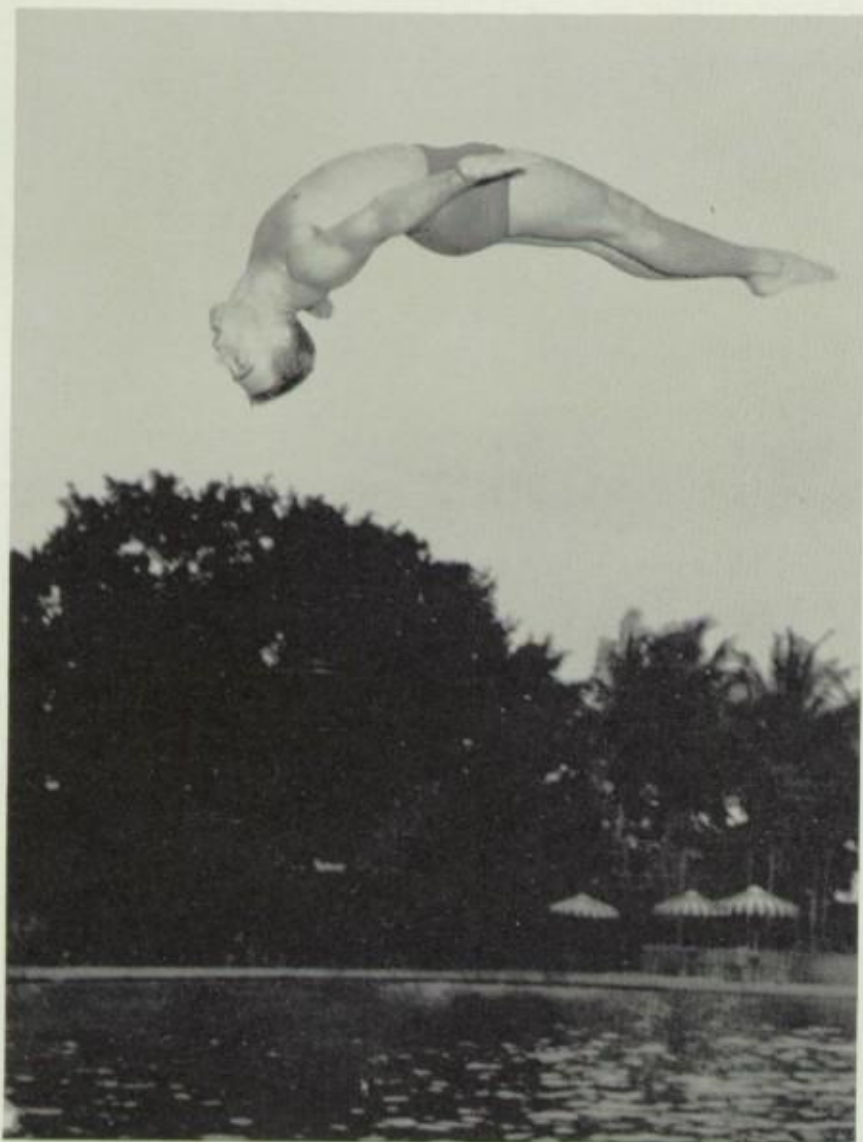

Joyce Argo, nationally recognized swimmer, gets off to a flying start in the 50-yard freestyle.

Showing their ability in the breast stroke event are Barbara Chesneau and All-American, Bob Magruder.

KEY WORD TO SWIMMING SEASON

Grant LeRoux, Gable's star diver, executes a back flip off the low board.

Jim FitzGibbon, All-City, All-State, All-American, demonstrates his perfection in the butterfly.

Art Paterson, 200 yard freestyler, also boasts numerous titles including All-American.

GABLES SLUGGERS STRIVE ON

Three of our starring outfielders are Harry Tuggle, Woody Woodward, and Howard Burkart.

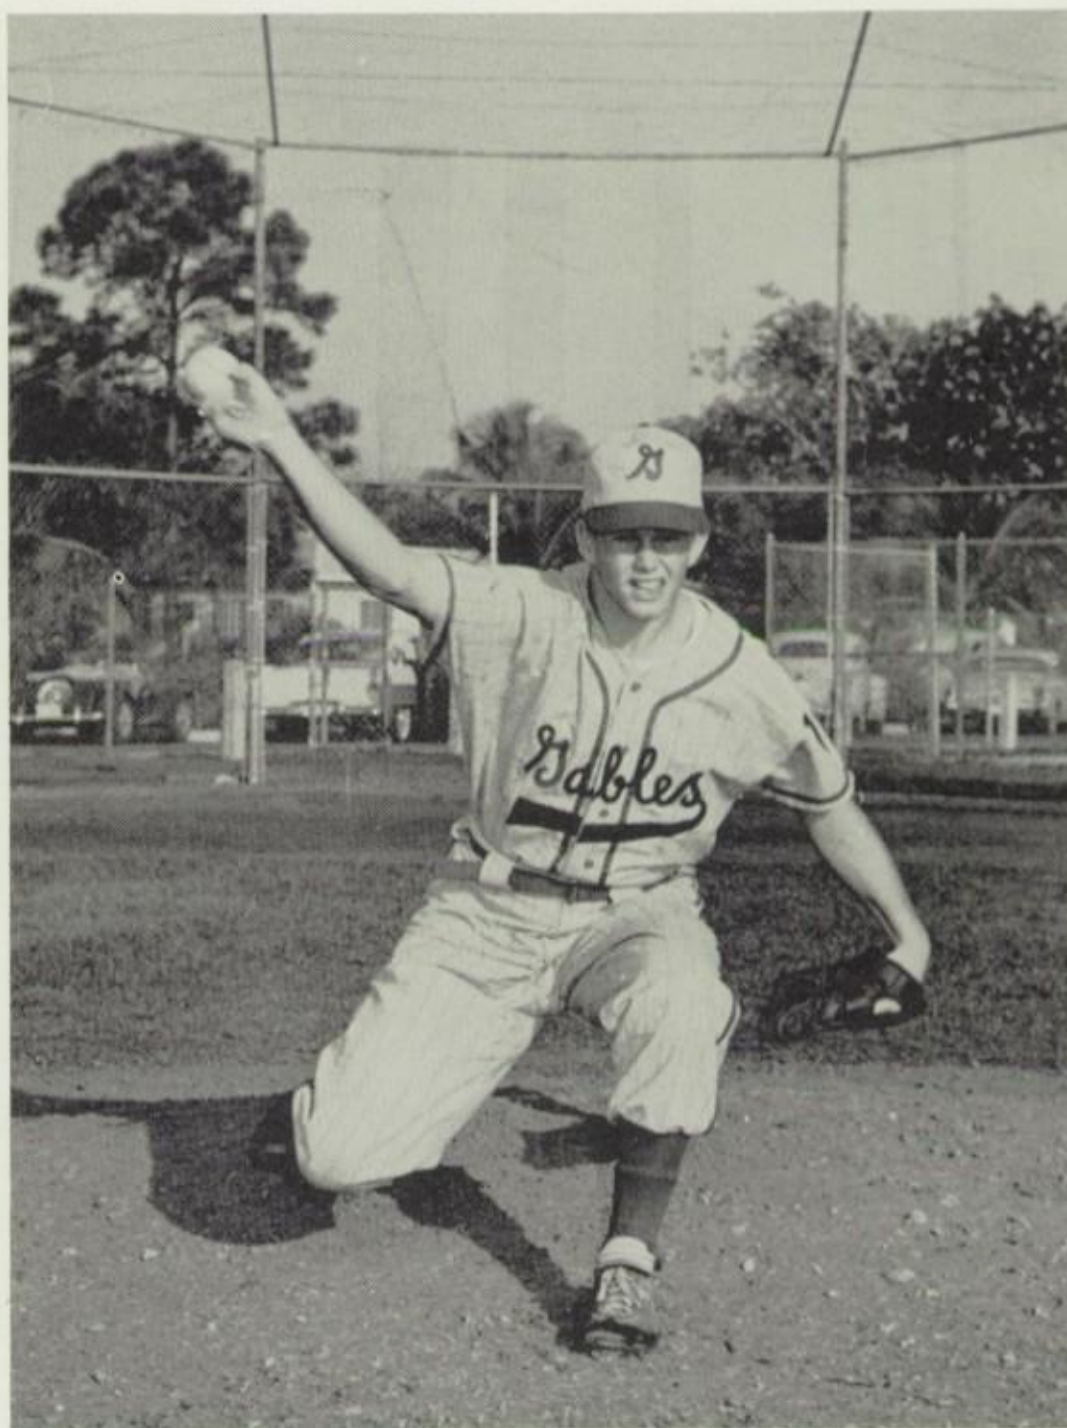

First baseman Wally Dale catches the ball to put slugger Dick Ahlfeld out.

TO SECURE A WINNING SEASON

The Gables' nine, with a schedule of fifteen games, took the field this year having as its objective to improve last year's record. Last season the Cavaliers won thirteen games and lost five and were edged out in the State Championship playoffs. Seventy prospective players went out for the team, and Coach Joe Krutulis narrowed this down to sixteen. The squad was centered around six returning lettermen of whom Wally Dale, Harry Tuggle, and Carlos Malagon were the strong points in Gables' batter's box, each batting over .235. Catcher Eddie Vickers, infielder Ed Zito, and outfielder Howard Burkart supported the field on the diamond. From the mound senior Jim Kelly, a transfer from New York, caused many a bat to claw the air in the wake of his mighty throws. Sophomores Dick Ahlfeld, first baseman, and Vic DuBois, catcher, proved a great asset to the team. All in all, the team shaped up to be one of the leading contenders for the state championship.

Pitcher Jim Kelly prepares to release a sharp curve in hopes of striking out another batter.

As veteran catcher Eddie Vickers calls the signals, batter Carlos Malagon whips the air for his first strike.

"Safe!" yells the umpire as third baseman Ed Zito attempts to tag Eddie Vickers out.

GIRLS' TEAMS SOAR TO VICTORY

As Mrs. Horner throws the ball into the air, Gerry Everett and Jeneen Gerald jump up to tap it to a teammate.

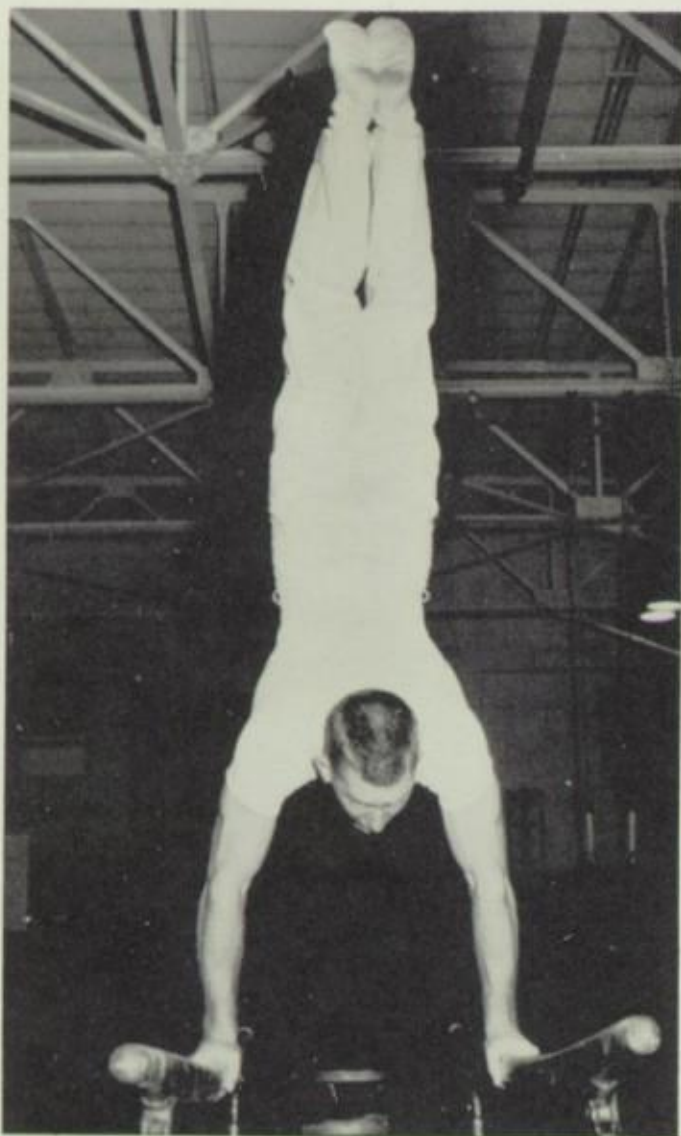

Slugging the ball for a home run is sophomore Debby Michelson.

Bringing honor to their school and themselves is the big job of the girls' athletic teams sponsored by the Girls' Athletic Association. Any girl who has an interest in sports can go out for the teams which practice after school. The girls' teams play in tournaments with other schools in volleyball, basketball, softball, and archery. For the past three years, our girls have won the District Championship in volleyball, and last year they won the Archery Tournament. They placed second in the basketball tournament and did equally well in softball. These teams are guided by Mrs. Marie Horner, who is also the GAA sponsor.

GABLES GYMNASTS EARN STATE FAME

Rigorous training has enabled Steve Ulmer to perform with agility on the parallel bars.

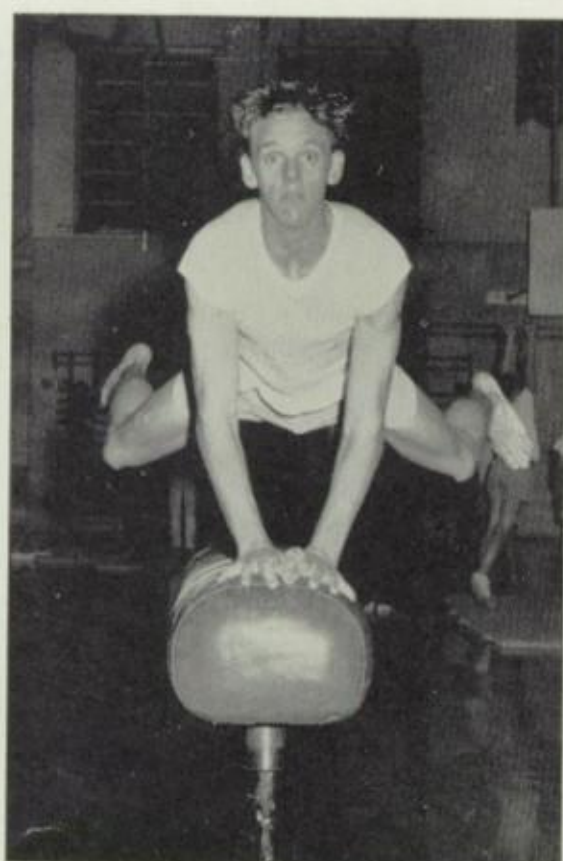

First row: Bill Burd, Eugene Kline, Jack McKenna, Eddie Kay, Peter VanSciver, Leonard Wolff, Robert Jordan, Steve Ulmer. Second row: Albert Laverde, Jaime Movilla, Peter Ream, Rodney Vestal, Keith Jobson, Kips Spire, Gary Routh, Victor Beckman, Mike Horn. Third row: Robin Whittaker, Brent Cooper, Don Mackay, Kenny Reed, Noel Whittaker, John Kimball, David Balthaser, Dave Gossett, Lee Dennison.

With over thirty students on this year's team, Coach Charles Harris held high hopes for a good season. Returning lettermen, Nick Gonzales, who holds the state rope-climbing record, and Leonard Wolff were a needed ingredient for this season's victories. After facing opponents in the scheduled 12 meets for this year, Coach Harris hopes to go on to the Dade County and Florida AAU Meets. Gymnastic skills of Steve Ulmer, Robert Jordan, and Peter Van Sciver were called upon to help make this season's gym team a real success.

Peter Van Sciver demonstrates the correct technique in rope climbing.

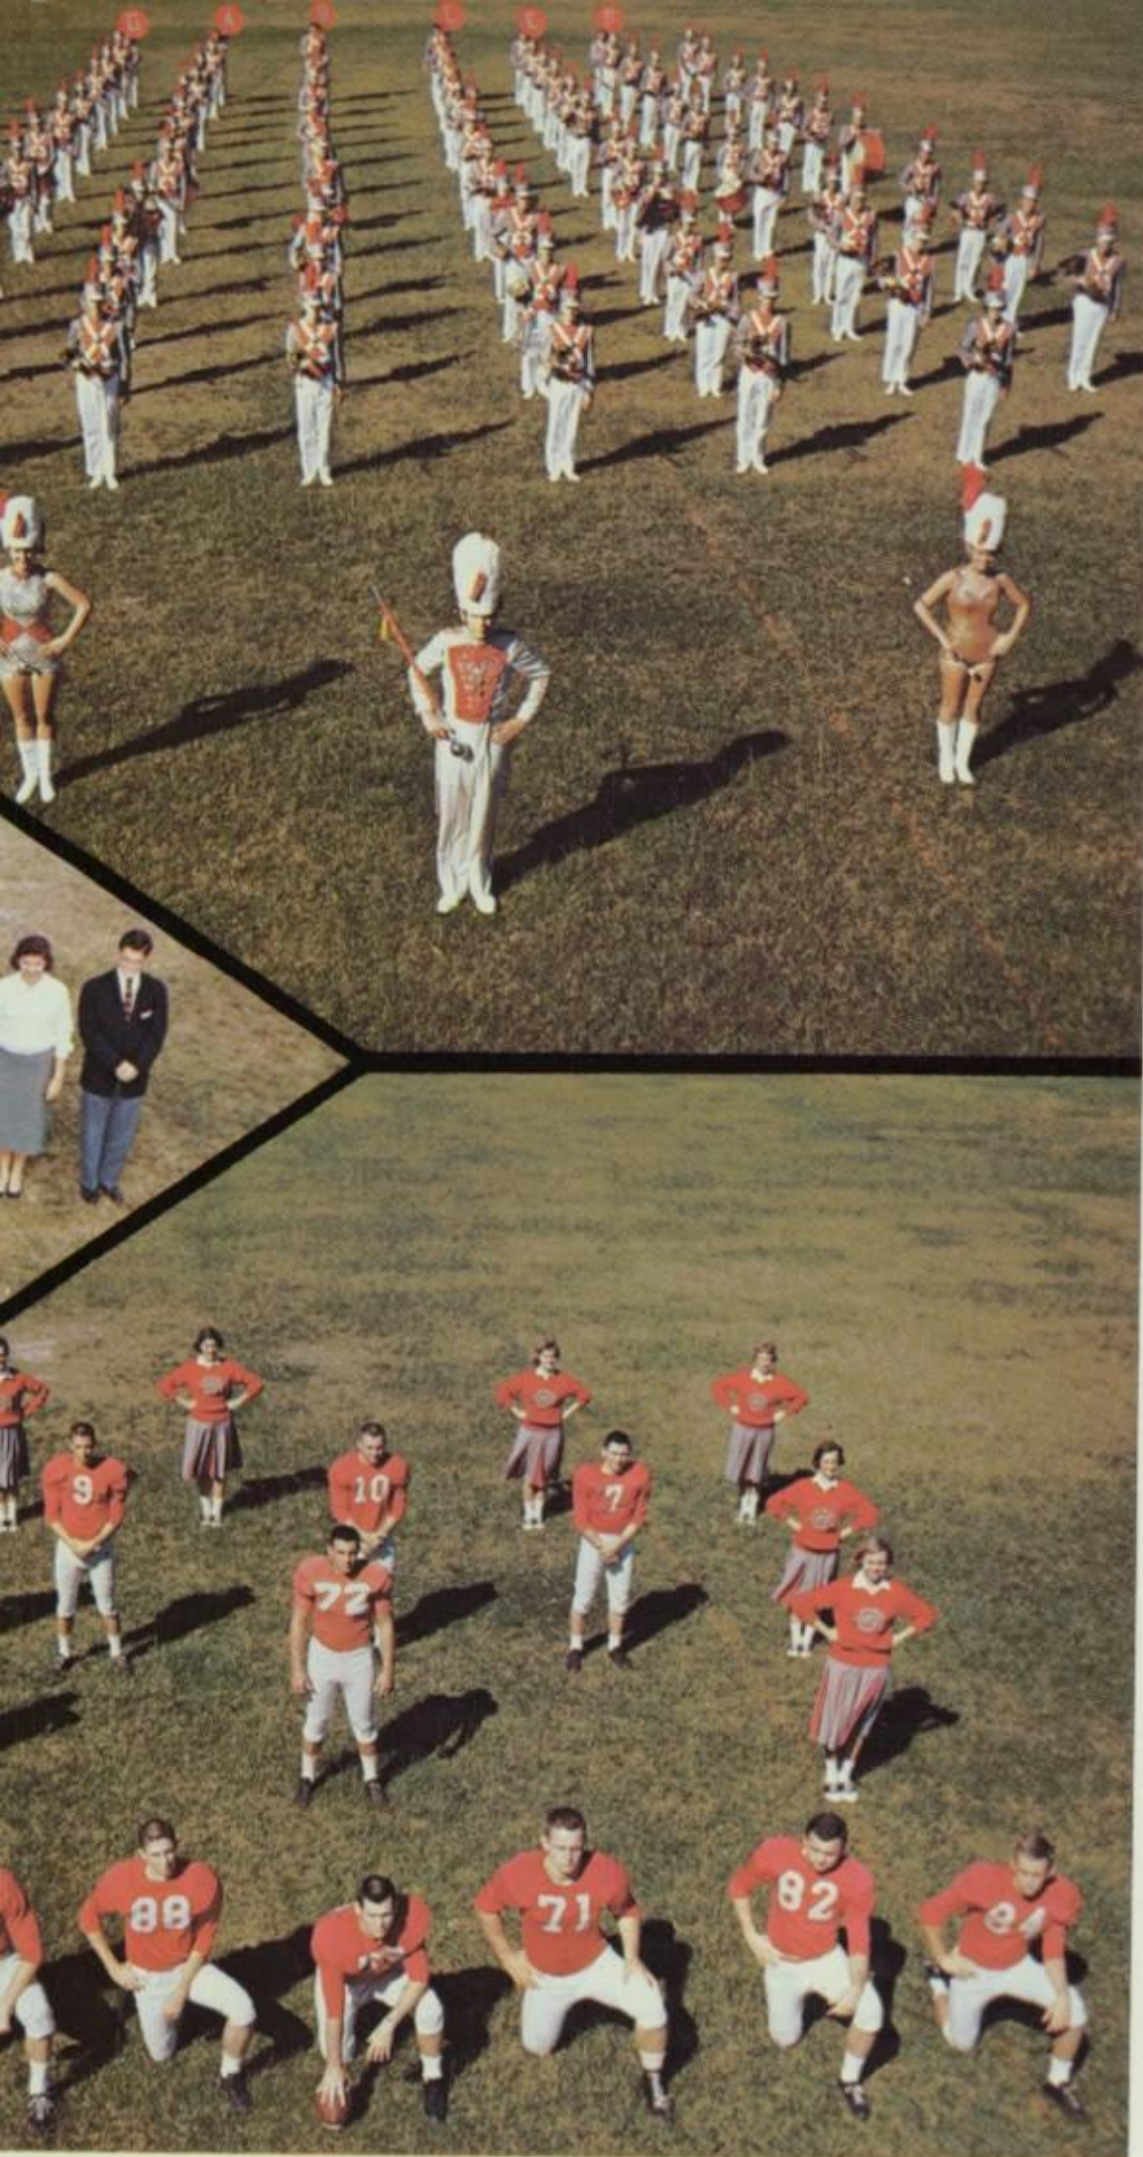

Jumping over the horse with a flying leap is veteran gymnast Lee Dennison.

THE BAND OF DISTINCTION BROUGHT

Success was ours again this year. Frequent rehearsals have helped to make the Band of Distinction a tremendous asset to our functions and sporting events. During the football season when such a terrific effort was being made to arouse Gables' traditional spirit, the band, along with the cheerleaders and "Mr. Fight," Coach Nick Kotys, proved itself to be the rallying point of our pep assemblies. It helped to send our team off in a victorious mood.

Mr. Edwin Cook, Director

UNEQUALED FAME TO GABLEITES

Ginn, Erickson, Sumrall, Seckel, Weiner, Baloff, Ewing, Carlong, Patterson, Leali, Vann, Sigman, Ditsler, Blume, Anibal, Black, Barusch, Simon, Dignum, and Barish. Fourth row: Wright, Winter, Haber, Ekker, Stratt, M. St. Laurent, Scott, Meginniss, Crowe, McWhorter, Kerr, Kunze, Ebsary, Holloway, Bunnager, Lane, Cripps, Brenner, G. St. Laurent, Zarr, Truppman, and Bell.

The Band made one trip to Lakeland and thus accompanied our football team through an extremely successful season. It kept up our morale and courage, and its intricate patterns during the half-time shows brought grand applause from the crowds.

Mr. Edwin T. Cook is the proud director of this praised organization. Officers, elected by the band members, aid Mr. Cook.

Performances outside of school give non-Gableites an opportunity to observe and enjoy this group.

Mr. Edwin T. Cook, our beloved band director, passed away on March 19, 1959. During the past year, Mr. Cook had been very ill, but kept doggedly at his much beloved job — leading the Band of Distinction. Under his capable guidance and inspiration our Band received this year, for the fifth consecutive time, the highest rating in state competition. Mr. Cook will be long remembered and loved by his Band, the faculty and the student body.

HIGH STEPPING MAJORETTES LEND

Our band organization has guidance in its officers. Seated: Matthews, Recording Secretary; Anibal, First Lieutenant; Davis, Second Lieutenant; Barish, Librarian; Hurwitz, Attendance Secretary. Standing: Seckle, Prin. Drummer; Black, Captain; Bullard, Captain of Majorettes; Boone, Star Twirler; Weiner, First Lieutenant.

A blare from the band . . . the high stepping solo twirlers . . . our majorettes are on! Twenty colorful, lively girls lead our band onto the field. The first group is the regular twirlers; the second one being organized as flag twirlers. This year they traveled to Lakeland with the football team.

"B" Corps majorettes for the Cavalier Band are—First row: Jeanette Pierce, Sandy Turner, Dolly Nestor, and Rosemary Milon. Second row: Judy Klein, Jane Vaughn, Nancy Jones, and Diana Wilson.

STYLE TO OUR FABULOUS BAND

The majorettes display their talents by performing in the Orange Bowl at every Gables Event. Annually they march in the Orange Bowl Parade.

Every year they compete in different contests. Among these is the state contest held in West Palm Beach.

Auditions for becoming a majorette are held at the beginning of the fall semester.

And presenting our head majorette, Bonnie Bullard, who leads the Band of Distinction.

The majorettes are caught . . . in the act of practicing, of course.

SYMPHONIC MUSIC ACHIEVED BY THE

These musicians center their talents to form this string quartet. They are: Gross, Elinoff, McLinden, and Whittaker.

Violins . . . yes, that is our outstanding orchestra. With Mr. Paul Cremaschi as its capable director, the orchestra has soared to immeasurable heights.

We, the student body, are able to hear it often during the school year. At the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter assemblies, this group of musicians joins with the chorus in offering first-rate entertainment.

The students are by no means the only ones to derive enjoyment from this organization. During some of the P.T.A. meetings, our parents are able to hear and applaud our orchestra. Special performances are given for the band patrons.

Mr. Paul Cremaschi, Director

TALENTED "ORCHESTRAL MASTERS"

At the Pan American assembly in April the orchestra unites with the Spanish classes and with the Spanish National Honor Society to present a program to encourage cooperation and understanding between the two Americas.

Although we are convinced that our orchestra is tops, we must prove it to neighboring schools and communities. Thus, the orchestra enters a district contest, where if it proves worthy to the judges it may continue to the state contest. Here it competes with all the winners of numerous other districts.

To become a member of this group, one must audition with Mr. Cremaschi. Officers are elected by the members and offer much needed aid to the director.

The Orchestra officers are—Standing: Gross, Concert Master; Elinoff, Vice-President. Seated: Lehew, Librarian; Whittaker, President; Stadtlander, Secretary.

Is this heavenly music? It seems to be chaos to the frolicsome musicians.

Fourth row: Mitchell, Koger, Stubbs, Wheeler, Eichrott, Anibal, Seckel, Bell. Standing: Ekker, Stratt, Pfeiffer, Denger, Winter.

Dewey, Lurstema, Hoover, Tidwell, Bennett. Fourth row: Worley, Marble, Sever, Hudson, Van Orsdel, B. Yanno, A. Yanno, Swigart, Tidwell, Hackett, Sharon, Calvin, Basl, Idyll, France, Gerald. Fifth row: Bullard, Gulyas, Combs, Hankins, Craig, Ronzi, Woodman, Ray, Gunter, Hodson, Ewald, Hostetter, Gosselin, Conklin, Noyer, Crudele.

Activities were resumed this year with a nucleus from last year's organization and with the added sparkle of Mrs. Joan James, our new chorus director. With zeal and the aid of the officers, she molded the 90 members of chorus. They worked long hours to blend their voices for the performances. The orchestra and chorus toil for the prestige of Gables and the music department.

The high points of their efforts are the Christmas, Thanksgiving, and Easter assemblies. They also give concerts throughout the Miami area.

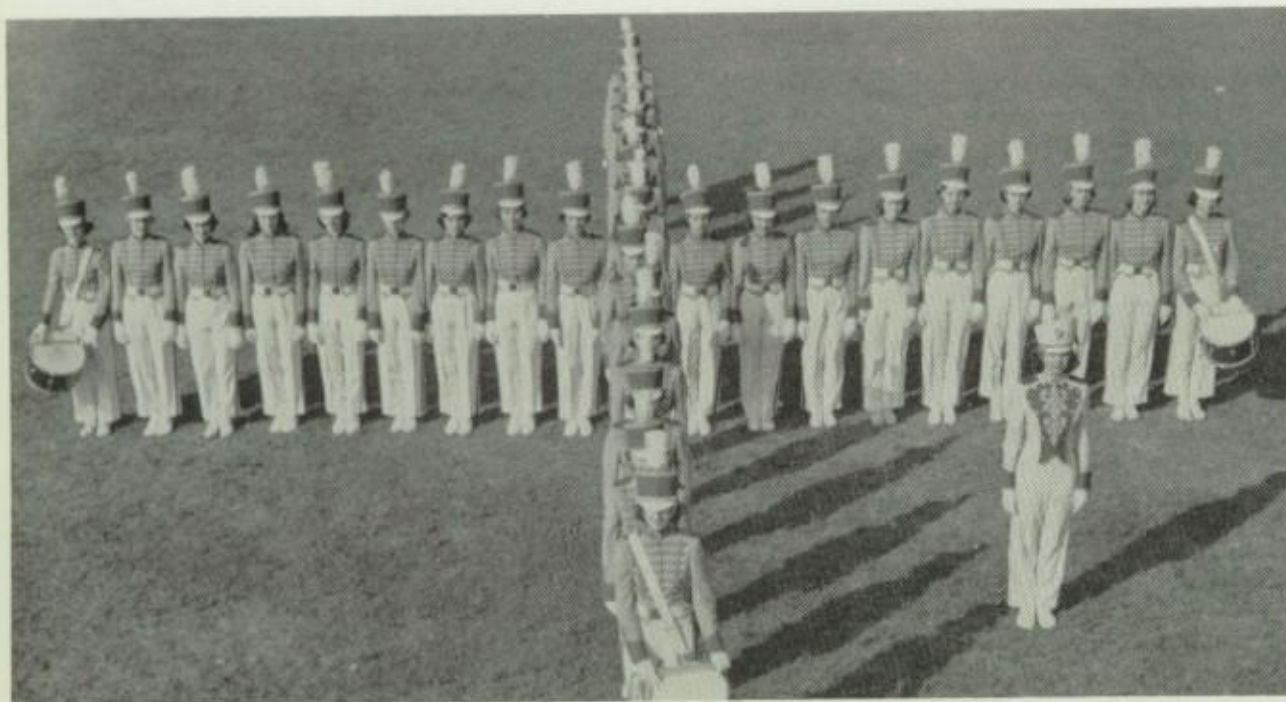

A trip to Tampa gave them a chance to display their talents in the state contest. Here their efforts were greatly rewarded.

Many experiences and opportunities are offered and derived from this organization.

Mrs. Joan James, Chorus director, leads the chorus in its presentation of the Christmas story.

THROUGH THE YEAR THE MARCHING

At the sound of a whistle the Cavaliettes snap to attention as they perform one of their numerous drills.

One of the oldest organizations at Coral Gables is Cavaliettes. This group originated at Ponce de Leon High School in 1937 as a pep club. Mrs. Ethel Steele, its present sponsor, has been with Cavaliettes since 1947.

The activities of this organization are numerous. After many hours of patient drilling in the broiling sun, success is theirs with outstanding precision marching. The Cavaliettes marched in the Orange Bowl Parade and at all of our football games in-Cavaliettes must be between 5'3" and 5'9" in height and must have a 3.0 average. Coordination, posture, and appearance are prerequisites for those girls who try out. Those who pass are put through eight weeks of basic training. Tryouts are held in December and May of each year.

The Cavaliettes execute a precision drill as they prove practice makes perfect.

DANCERS INTERPRET MODERN MOTION

First row: Edwards, Wilson, Cullen, Suarez, Lynn, Fondren, Bourbeau, Gale, Marzullo. Second row: Mosebach, Kapner, Lord, Adamson, Gloer, Sinclair, Gilmore, Harris, Domning, Goss, Williams. Third row: Wells, Zell, Dunwody, Coffin, Seipp, Sanders, Scutti, Halberg, Forman, Bosworth, Rodnon, Severud.

Self assurance, ease, and grace are the goals of modern dance. Many hours of laborious practice under the direction of Mrs. Helen Smith go into the fulfillment of these goals.

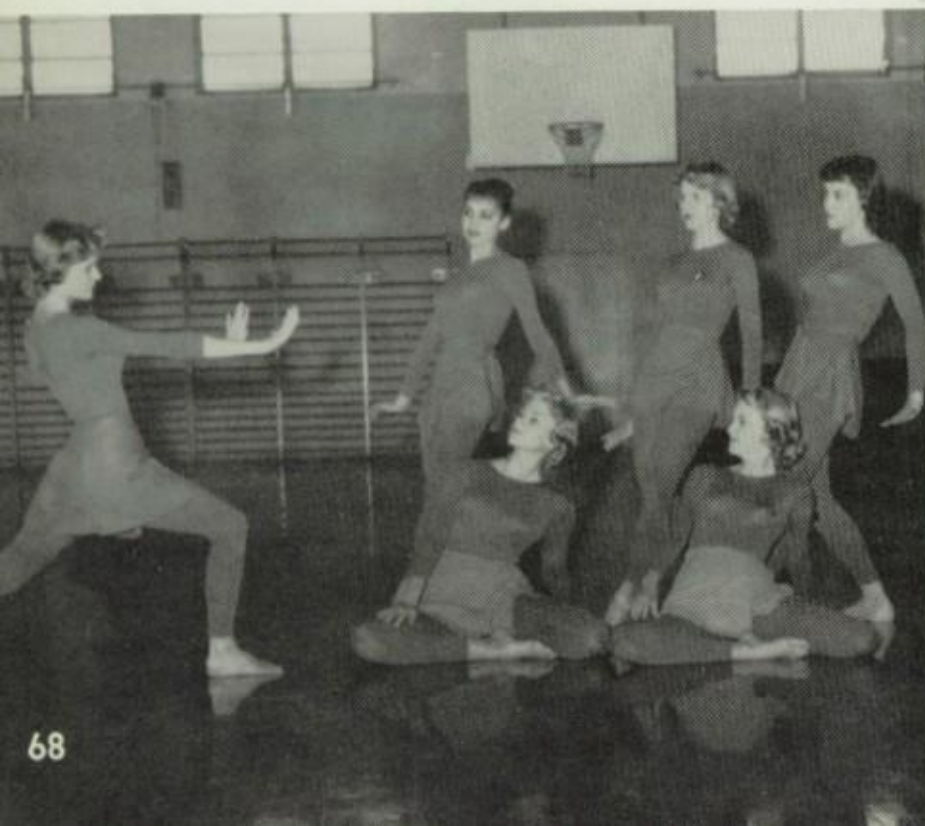

This group performs during the half time shows of many of our football games. They participate in the Mardi Gras and numerous other school functions. A trip to Lakeland was included on the schedule this year.

Costumes used are made by these junior and senior girls. Tryouts are held in the spring with the requirements being some rhythmic ability and a 2.6 average.

Officers of Modern Dance strike an effective pose: Mrs. Helen Smith, Sponsor; Lord, Treasurer; Williams, President; Suarez, Secretary; Seipp, Historian; and Goss, Vice-President.

Practicing modernistic interpretations of the dance are, Seated: Scutti and Gloer. Standing: Adamson, Kapner, Domning, and Zell.

CHEERLEADERS SPARK SCHOOL SPIRIT

“Go, Gables!” This sound is echoed wherever our vivacious, colorful cheerleaders go. These eleven girls are the fuel of enthusiasm throughout our games for the student body.

Under the capable supervision of Mrs. Joan James, they promote school spirit. Hours of practice go into their routines, but the saying goes, “Practice makes perfect.”

Present at all pep assemblies and athletic events, the cheerleaders lead the student body in rousing cheers that urge the teams on to victory.

LINDA MARION
Captain

The enthusiasm and vivaciousness of the cheerleaders go hand in hand with the spirit of friendship as Leslie takes the cake and admits another year.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES FORM A WELL

Time: Saturday night. Place: Orange Bowl. Scene: Confusion as Gables' band blares out a snappy pep song, "Are You from Gables?"

Pretty Bonnie Bullard, our head majorette, swings through one of her high-stepping routines.

Steam heat's got 'em and they are really rockin'. Modern Dance's interpretation is gone . . . nothing but gone.

Concentration is the key-note of success. Drama's first play of the year proved this to be true.

ROUNDED PROGRAM FOR GABLEITES

Patience and perseverance . . . it takes a lot of both to present a half-time show comparable in style and precision to those executed by our band.

The shrill whistle . . . Our football team kicks off another game . . . "Ready-O, Let's go!" yell the cheerleaders . . . Going, going, he did it . . . Gables pushes off to a spectacular start . . . Halftime . . . Drums, Majorettes, the Band of Distinction . . . Magnificent performance . . . Modern Dance, down boys . . . Color galore: Well, that's Gables, School of Distinction . . . Here come the Cavaliers . . . "Hold that Line!" . . . They did it . . . Another game, another triumph . . . Players retire exhausted but excited . . . All are tired . . . Books to face tomorrow . . . Jimmy's get the last drop of energy.

The lilting music of chorus provides enjoyment for every Gableite. The Christmas assembly is eagerly anticipated.

Enthusiasm . . . that's what it's called. Dee Garty's worn-out appearance is typical of our PEPPY cheerleaders AFTER the ballgame.

THEATER ARTS EXHIBITED IN DRAMA

Opening night jitters are concealed by Linda Eskenas as she peers from behind the curtain at the gathering crowd.

The thrill and excitement of opening night was experienced twice during the course of this year by the drama students. They presented the composite, "The Evils That Men Do." And they also presented a full length three-act play entitled "The Staring Match." Both were at night and admittance was open to both students and parents.

The activities of drama aren't limited to acting. For any production drama puts on, they are in charge of the lighting and sound. The students provide their own directors, managers, and stage hands. Make-up is essential because each line and shade has a specific meaning. Combined with talent, it makes our drama students look almost professional.

Rehearsals are held often and, under the supervision of Mr. David Feldman, our actors and actresses strive for perfection.

Students who are interested and have excelled in their particular field are eligible for membership in the drama honorary, Thespians.

Judging a staring match is an eye popping event and one which displays dramatic perfection.

Here the dramatists prove that practice with untiring effort promotes a perfect scene.

Drama is not all acting as Chris Nuthall exhibits the backstage chores of a performance.

OFFICERS GUIDE STUDENT COUNCIL

We wonder what is cooking, as Bob Winter, Student Council President, and Mr. James Corcoran, Director of Student Activities, get together.

Bookcovers, carnivals, dances, Lost and Found; all these things pass through the sometimes-hectic room of 506 and the capable hands of our Student Council officers and cabinet. The officers, elected by the entire student body, coordinate the activities of all clubs and student government functions. These functions are supervised more closely by appointed cabinet members.

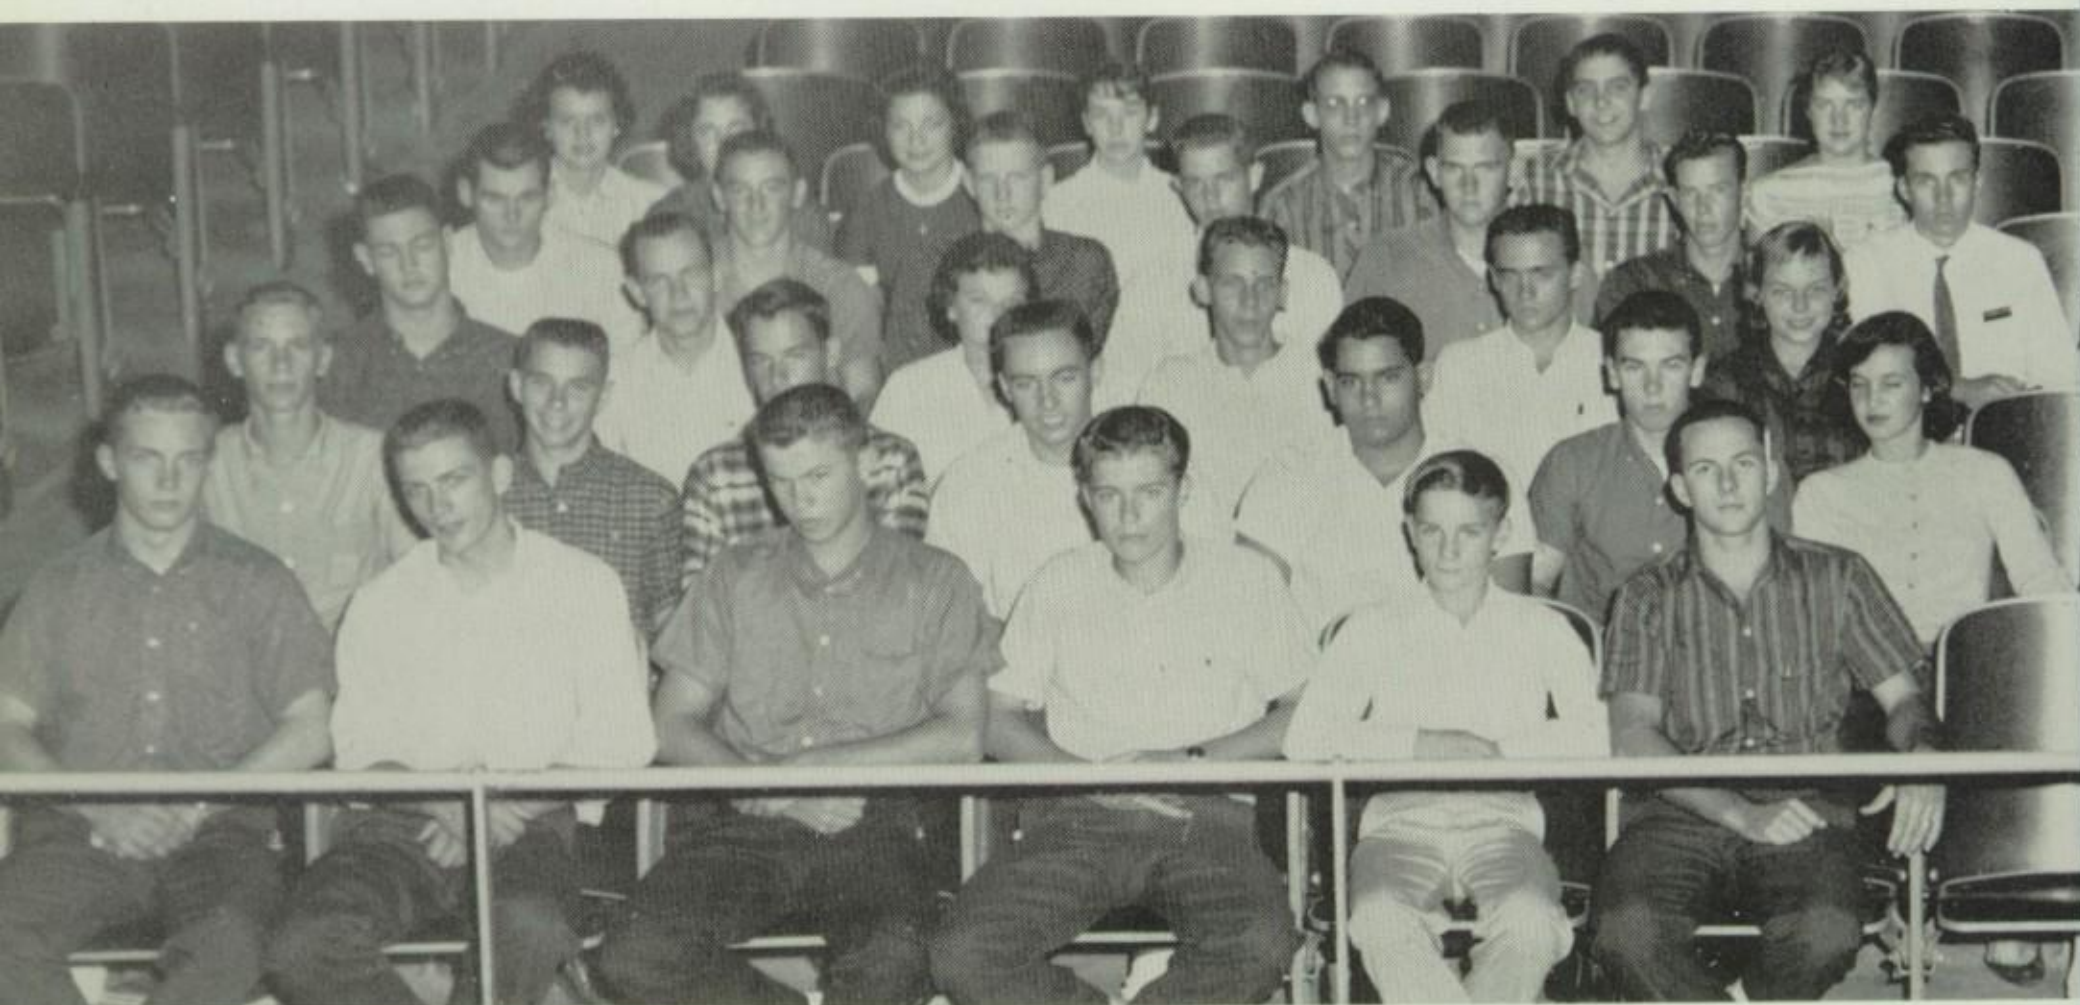

Conventions stimulate ideas. These ideas are brought to Gables from other schools, and can be adopted if they prove to be an asset to our school. This year the idea of providing a senior parking lot was tried and initiated. This was just one of the ideas Gables obtained from other groups such as: The Southern Association of Student Councils, The Florida Association, and the University of Florida's Youth Workshop. Gables is President of the FASC, District Six, this year, and is the headquarters of Governor Collins' Twelfth District for the Youth Advisory Council.

What happens to a new idea for student activities around Gables? First, it is brought up at the Cabinet meeting. On the next day it is submitted to the Student Council meeting, where it is voted into life. A cabinet member next takes charge of it, and the officers see that it is coordinated with the Council's other activities.

Every organization has diligent workers and the officers of Student Council are no exception. Here we see Nancy Shea, Treasurer; Ida Morris, Secretary; and David Lee, Vice-President, as they discuss future plans.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEMBERS STRIVE

Student Council Cabinet members plan for the next meeting. Seated: Denise Edwards, Ginny Aber, Brenda Booke, Liefje Lund. Standing: Glory Goss, Steve Billings, Barbara Mogg, Pete Henderson, Bill Criswell, Lief Erickson, Ross McVoy, Dennis Gardner, and Ellis Vaughn.

FOR HIGHER STANDARDS AT GABLES

Tethorst, Tegtman, Werth, Niblock, Fretwell, Soret, Monahan, Jones, Fennell, Algerez, Nixon, Zuckerman. Fifth row: Bedinger, West, Shearon, Calvin, Ginn, Walls, Denice, Winter, Seffelo, Goldman, Sargent, Dean, Robbins, Brown.

Problems . . . Problems . . . Problems! The work of handling these problems is done by the Student Council. They range from the distribution of I.D. pictures and the selling of pom-poms to Homecoming Week. Led by the director of Student Activities, Mr. James Corcoran, the Council executed new projects. Among these were: the post office at Christmas time, the football contest, and the senior parking lot.

Before an organization may do anything, whether it be a social event or a new undertaking, it must be approved by this student government.

Student Council representatives are the presidents of all the homerooms. The president of Student Council appoints a cabinet of fourteen members who are approved by Mr. Corcoran. At the beginning of each semester new members are appointed to the cabinet.

At a first glance Ginny Aber and Nancy Shea appear to be asleep. Actually they are diligently working on student council files.

These students are among many who contribute the various ideas and projects to Student Council.

BOARDS REPRESENT EACH CLASS

Junior Board members are, Seated: Duerson, Nichols, Harris, Phelps, Stadler, and Fondren. Standing: Breiner, Eastridge, Grafton, Marte, Matlock, Stoddard, Coffin, Mosely, Suarez, Hill, Butler, Watson, Vaughn, Sheldon, Pierce, Allison, Lowry, Jensen, Roland, and Munoz.

Junior and Senior Boards are two of the student governing bodies which are headed by the class officers. The members of these organizations are chosen to represent their individual homerooms.

Some of the projects undertaken by the Junior Board are the King and Queen of Hearts Dance in February, the selling of gay bells before each football game, and the Junior-Senior Prom, which is considered the greatest social event of the year.

Senior Board activities are many: the Senior Class dance; the Charity Ball, whose theme this year was "Blue Fantasy," and whose proceeds went to the Children's Cardiac Home; and the shamrock sale, which took place in March for St. Patrick's Day.

Many problems both social and economical are discussed and settled, and plans for the different activities are made at their meeting.

I.C.C. PROMOTES SCHOOL PROJECTS

I.C.C. members are, First row: Ivanoff, Williamson, Huttig, Virgin, Clexton, Foxwell, Forsyth, Woodard, Jackson. Second row: Ekker, Freed, Ewald, Rossman, Davidson, Montgomery, Criswell, Gibbs, Dence, Cole, Levi.

Inter-Club Council is an exclusively limited organization. Its members consist of the presidents of all the school clubs and honor societies. Under the expert guidance of Mr. James T. Corcoran, this group strives for closer cooperation and coordination between the member organizations.

Projects are suggested and undertaken by the various clubs. Those projects accomplished this year include: painting lines in the parking lot; purchasing benches for the school; and helping the muscular dystrophy campaign.

David Lee, President, dictates notes to Linda Marion, Secretary, concerning I.C.C.

Heave ho! Let's go! is the chant of the industrious Gableites as they help with I.C.C.'s bench project.

A GALA HOMECOMING CAPTURED

Our exciting win over Miami High did not come easily. Victory was the result of a hard-fought battle.

Now you see it, now you don't. That could be said of the pizza pies at the party after school during Homecoming week!

Never let it be said that Gables can't put on the heat! Before the gridiron clash the enthusiastic students whoop it up at the bonfire.

THE HEARTS OF ALL THE GABLEITES

Homecoming Week was extra exciting this year! The festivities began with the crowning of our radiant queen and her court, during the semi-formal sponsored by Student Council. Chosen from the senior class by the student body were lovely Pat Boone, our queen, and her equally striking court, Jane McLean, Linda Marion, Mary Caffee, and Cookie Suarez.

Bob Greene, radio station disc jockey, held an afternoon pizza party at school. This helped to wind up a successful tag sale.

Motorcade . . . where to? Our traditional bonfire! Fun and excitement were shared by all who attended. The scene was set for this the peak of our successful football season. The cheerleaders and the student body joined Coach Kotys in his "110 per cent" effort. It paid off with a thrilling victory over Miami High.

CLUBS COMBINE SERVICE WITH FUN

A touch of old Spain . . . Even the famous pinata, containing all sorts of goodies, can be found at a Spanish National Society meeting.

Get togethers are always fun, especially if it means a cruise. Wonder how many got away???

All new members get dunked three times. Just hold your nose and . . . splash!!

Nothing like a few helpful hints for hectic happenings. Organizations provide many activities for the entire school.

Pickpockets, arsons, thieves, and thugs (better known as Wheel Clubbers) take over the city for a day.

There's more than one way to get around a hall guard.

May . . .

Sunburns and extra pounds resulted as Gables bombarded the beaches on Senior Skip Day.

Senior Skip Day has taken its annual toll . . . Wheel Clubbers appear in the city government for a day . . . Everyone starts studying madly for exams . . . Books and papers appear at the beach as Gableites kill two birds with one stone . . . The exquisite 1959 Cavaleon makes its debut at the Cavern . . .

Gables recently hired a policeman to control that wild hod-rod in the 800 hall.

Who are you boys trying to kid? I have as much right to be here as you do. This isn't the Senior parking lot.

. . . Summer Fever

Seniors grow sad as the end of school approaches and they realize they will soon leave . . . They are filled and entertained at the Senior Class Banquet . . . Exams are upon us and we do our final session of cramming for this school year . . . May leaves quietly so as not to disturb studying Gableites.

This must be one of our fun-loving juniors trying to escape detection on Senior Skip Day.

We know your arm isn't broken, you just don't want to have to sign all these Cavaleons.

After three years together studying . . . laughing . . . hoping . . . dreaming . . . planning . . . we contemplate the future—

June . . .

Don't feel too bad, old boy, we can't all pass.

As you young adults pass this milestone in your lives, you begin to realize your responsibilities . . .

What! No kitchen sink???

STUDENT BODY

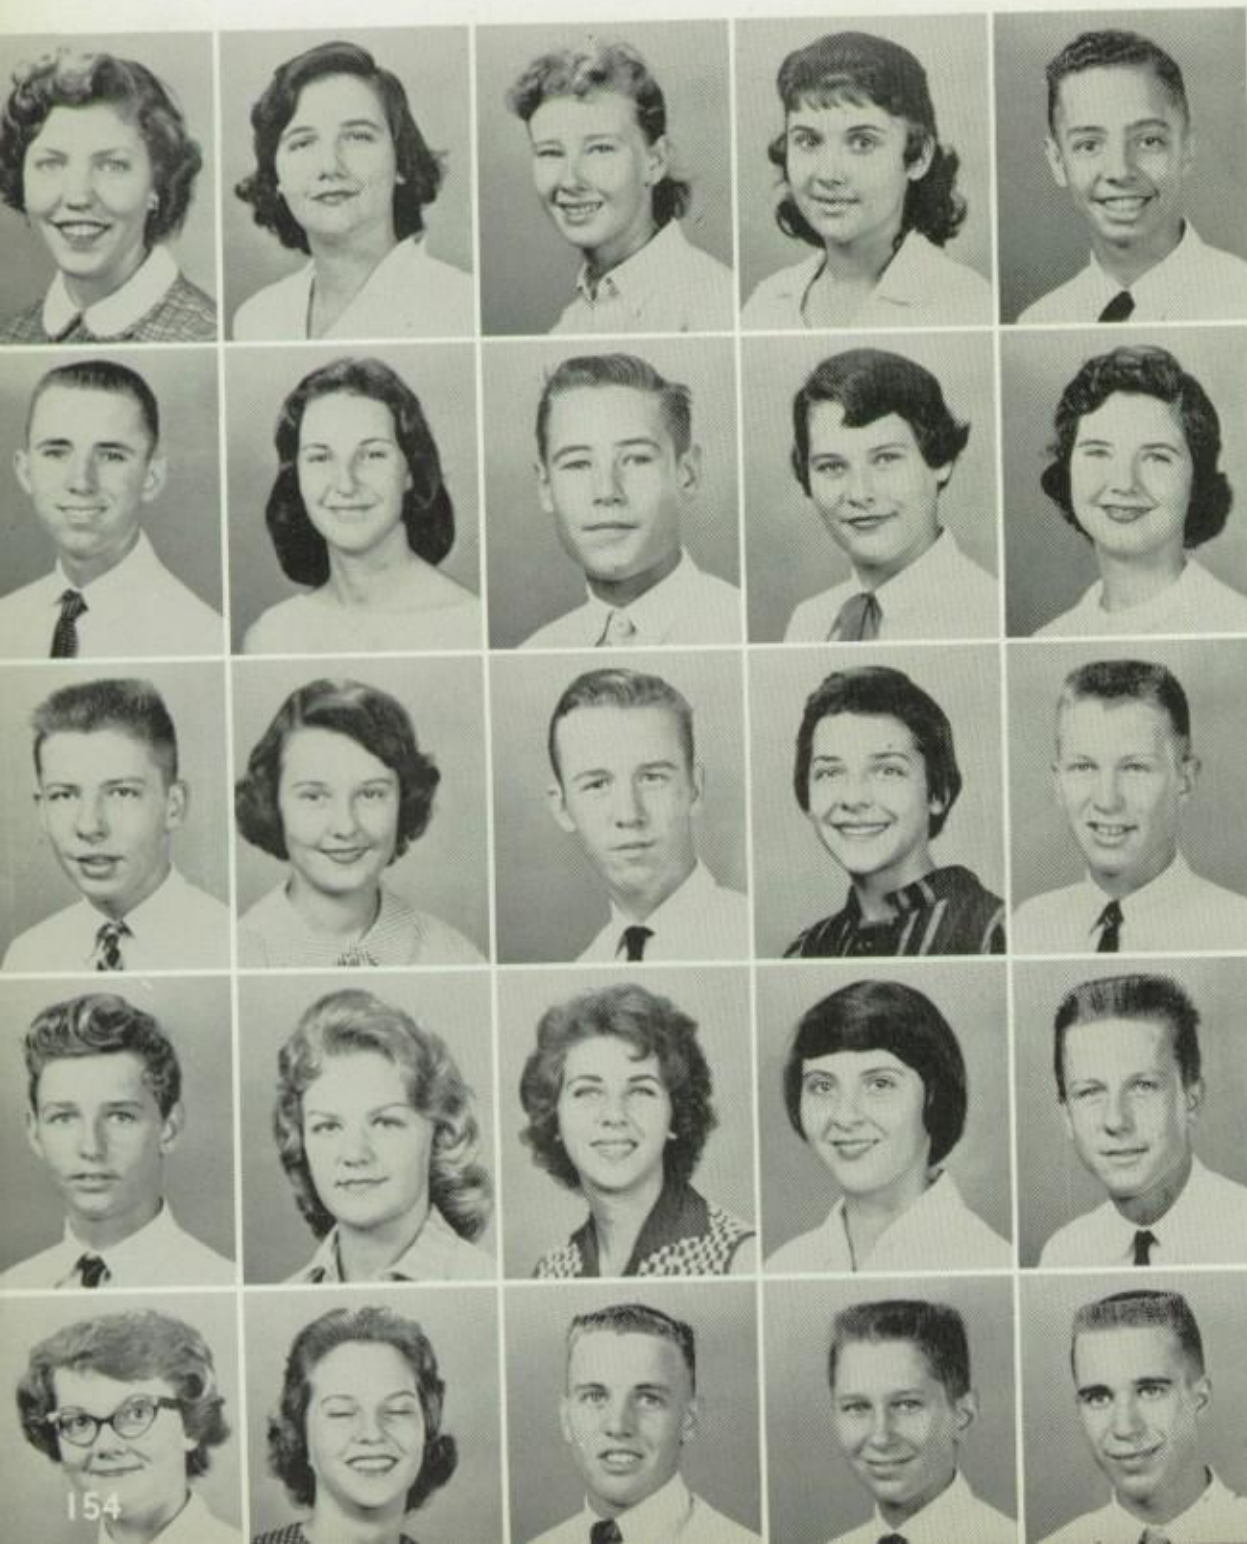

Student Body, the heartbeat of Gables . . . new, bewildered sophomores . . . happy, carefree juniors . . . worldly, responsible seniors . . . friends, classmates, slight acquaintances . . . always willing to give a helping hand in all types of situations from love affairs to tutoring you in your studies . . . people of varied interests and ideas and from all walks of life . . . joined together in classes, organizations, and in a great loyalty to Gables, their school.

Come on, Gal! Let's go to the dance. (Is this what they mean by a Hag-Drag??!!)

I should get an "A" on this biology project.

FLEDGLINGS TRY THEIR WINGS

Officers of the Sophomore Class are: Judy Hasencamp, Secretary; Lief Erickson, President; Dick Bates, Vice-President; and Susy Reno, Treasurer.

The excitement of a big school and many faces. Yes, we finally belonged to beautiful Gables. Remember your confused and rattled brain as you got lost in the 300 hall . . . semester fees . . . people yelling, Get your pompoms . . . buy your jinx dolls, gay-bells, Gables pennant . . . G pins and bookcovers for sale . . . Join A.Y. . . . The thrill of the football assemblies and the hoarseness after the football and basketball games . . . the slushing through the rain and the elections. Everything so different. The homework was ghastly and report cards seemed to come much too often. Ah, the dances with bands . . . teas . . . Homecoming weekend . . . learning to use sign language in study hall . . . new responsibilities, and then the dreaded semester exams. Then the annual spring dance and the announcement of the Sophomore Sweetheart . . . corsages and valentines (sigh) . . . Cavaliette Musical tryouts, Cavaleon Cavern, cheerleading and Cavaliette tryouts . . . hopes of making the varsity team . . . the fun of the Phantom Stroller . . . figuring out how to gulp down lunch and get caught up on the latest gossip without being late to the next class . . . and then more terrifying exams (oh, those lucky seniors). Gables is wonderful and we look forward to having two more years of exciting times. Next year we'll be juniors, and the year after that, glorified seniors.

The ever-lovin' P.T.A.ers provide nourishment for the hungry Juniors.

It's chow time again!! Slenderella will have a few more clients.

JUNIORS ARE FLYING HIGH

Junior Class officers are: President, Ellis Vaughn; Secretary, Sara Sue Phelps; Treasurer, Phoebe Pierce; Vice-President, Andy Sheldon.

The curtain drew and we entered in September 1958, as dignified juniors . . . from the blissful ignorance of the first year we passed on to the omniscient complacency of the Junior year . . . we felt like old-timers as we walked the familiar halls . . . studies again represented a common problem . . . class offices were eagerly contested for with those elected receiving all our support . . . our throats became raw from yelling for the Fighting Cavaliers . . . the dances were thrilling and varied . . . Sara Sue Phelps and Harry Tuggle were ceremoniously crowned our King and Queen of Hearts amidst the gay atmosphere of our Valentine Dance . . . some Juniors had the honor of being tapped for the various honor societies . . . spring sports arrived and the boys disappeared . . . our Carnival booth was a great success . . . for weeks we burned the midnight oil working on our greatest undertaking . . . the Prom, which crowned with bejeweled success all our past endeavors . . . it climaxed a year which will be a fond memory to all of us . . . some of us have already sampled College Boards, and what is ahead of us . . . next year we will be the upperclassmen . . . the leaders . . . the ones respected and looked up to . . . as this year draws to a close we turn to visualize, with a feeling of preparedness, the greater things that are yet to come.

SENIORS SOAR TO SUCCESS

Senior Class officers Tim Abbott, President; Sue Novotny, Treasurer; Sarah Cullen, Secretary; and Charlie Galloway, Vice-President managed to combine both work and play.

Suddenly, here we are . . . graduating Seniors . . . a few strains of Pomp and Circumstance bring us to the awarding of our diplomas, those precious pieces of parchment that represent three years of work, fun, laughter and tears. Gables holds many fond memories for us all; and as graduation grows near we look back on the highlights of our three years as Gableites . . . How frightened we were when we entered as sophomores in 1957 . . . soon we got accustomed to things and Gables became home . . . we elected Bob Sutton, Judy Alexander, Sue Novotny, and Nancy Shea to lead our class . . . dances, class projects, State football champs and being acclaimed the top school in Florida made the year extra exciting . . . Ida Morris and Tim Abbott were chosen to reign over our first dance, The Annual Easter Ball . . . we entered our junior year with experience behind us and challenge before us . . . Bob Sutton . . . Bob Winter, Ida Morris, and Nancy Shea were chosen as our class officers . . . at our King and Queen of Hearts Dance Judy Alexander and Nick Gonzales reigned . . . after many sleepless nights and much hard work we climaxed the year by taking the Seniors on a "Japanese Holiday" at our wonderful prom . . . we entered the school as Seniors "with all the honors appertaining thereto" . . . the year was terrific and for the second time we became State Champs . . . there were football games, Homecoming Week, our Charity Ball, the Cavaliette Musical, and the Cavaleon Cavern . . . we attending them all for the last time . . . finally, our own Prom . . . a night to remember forever . . . life has been wonderful at Gables . . . as we go out into the world, we take Gables with us in our hearts . . . we will always be proud and happy to say that we are a part of Coral Gables Senior High, the School of Distinction.

PUBLICATIONS

First semester co-editors, Cynthia Smith and Joanne Polizzi take a moment's rest from the hectic journalism pace.

Thursday morning. 6 A.M. Alarm clock rings. "Hey, Mom, you nuts?!" rings a cheery voice from under the covers. "Remember, Dear, this is the morning the High Lights comes out and you have to be at school at seven!" This is one of those many times when you'd just love to kill Mother, that beloved parent—but she speaks the truth, so off to school you go. A group of wide-awake (!) people greet you in 504 where all proceed to fold and insert the freshly-printed High Lights.

Mrs. Chris Steers
Faculty Advisor

Sports editors Eddie Kaim and Priscilla Estes show their prowess at fencing.

The advertising staff, Marcia Fennel, Anna Jo Shappee, and Dick Hartom squeeze in a little fun.

"Nothing ever fits!" wail Nancy DuPuy and Jan Spiegel who work on layouts.

Club editor Dale Van Sciver adds a note to the blackboard.

LIGHTS

As a matter of fact, they are so freshly printed that you are likely to have a copy printed on your hands before the job is finished! So many satisfied comments fill the air: "I did not spell Rath RATHE!" "Who did then?" "Welll . . ." By eight o'clock everyone looks like he's been playing with typewriter ribbons, but the job is done. We all take a deep breath, or rather a choke, as our sponsor greets us with the horrible thought—"Deadline Monday!" and the whirl of 504 begins all over again!

Linda Easton and Mary Vogel look over a copy of the High Lights. They are the second semester editors.

This is what we in 504 really look like! A behind the scenes shot of dignified journalists. Notice the intelligent expressions on our faces!

Feature editor Jane Ream concentrates on the newest "Lonely Hearts" column.

Michaelleen Hann and Gerry Gustafson check the calendar for deadlines.

Bea Parkin checks a stack of old papers. The needed one is invariably missing!

Kay Easter, photography editor, gazes at pictures after a long day's work.

CAVALEON

Ruth Spirer, co-editor

Dee Garty, co-editor

Faculty editors play William Tell with the apples they should be saving for the teachers! They are Sandy Gibbons, Lee Martin, and Maryanne Gould.

"What did you say? All eight pages have to be in by Friday? I can't, I just can't possibly . . . Well, all right then." This is the daily cry of the Cavaleon staff. Never enough time, but when deadline approaches, Spanish is neglected, Macbeth is put aside, and all effort goes into putting out the Cavaleon. First come the layouts. Just when everything seems perfect (to you, at least!) along comes the lovely announcement, "I'm sorry but you can only have six pages instead of eight!" and layouts are pulled apart by the frantic editor who is trying to discover a way to put SNHS and Library Club on the same page!

Two senior editors, Lee Solomon and Beth Knoche, have earned the right to wear caps and gowns, but junior Ellen Duncan wants hers this year! One more year, Ellen!

Watch your finger, Nancy. Just the paper! These three girls work on student activities: Nancy DuPuy, Maria Munoz, and Binney Learned.

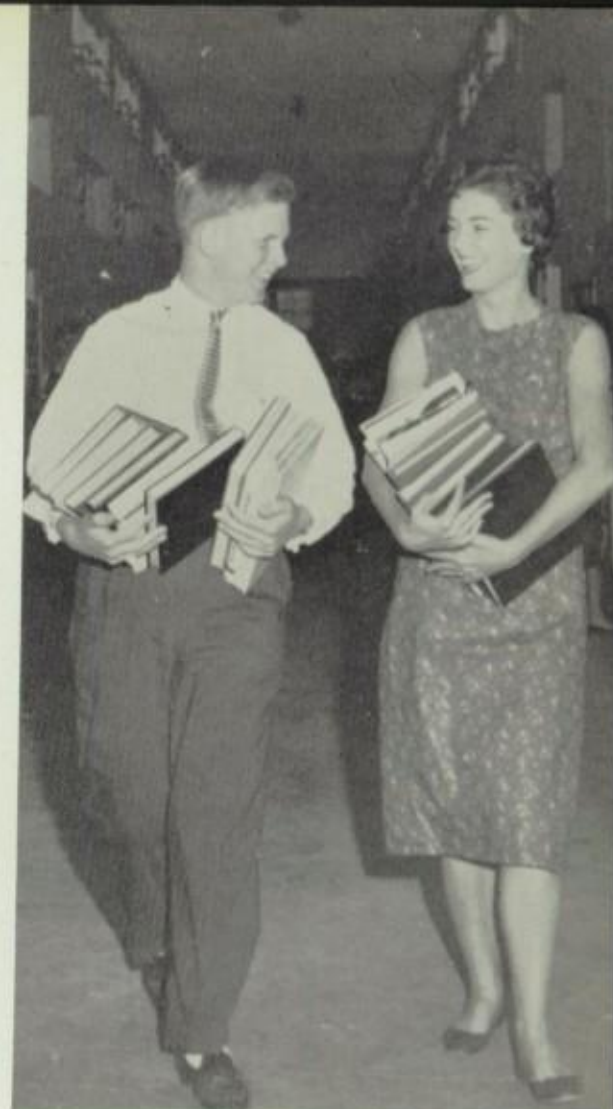

The Cavaleon must go to press! First Rowe Eikenberry, Glory Goss, and Madeline Domning plan layouts.

Sports editors Mary Vogel and Pris Estes attend to the picture-taking, the second step in putting out a Cavaleon.

Sandy Smith and Kay Easter, advertising editors, gather a load of finished books to be taken to advertisers.

The second step is the picture-taking, accompanied by such cries as "It just can't rain!" or "Will you please sit still." Pictures come back from the photographer and it's time to write captions. "I'm so tired of trying to be clever!" is a usual cry; or perhaps, "Does anyone know who this girl sitting in the puddle is?!" The final step is the writing of copy, and with this, the book goes to press and we begin work on next year's Cavaleon!

Which face goes with which name? Junior editors Joan Kaylor, Susie McNeil, and Rhoda Emery, and sophomore editor Kitty Schultz tackle the assortment of pictures.

Linda Easton, publications, and Diane Marks, organizations, take a minute out to pretend that things are just fine!

Gail Harter, promotions, and Jan Speigle, student activities, find a stack of Cavaleons a fine elbow-rest!

"Have you signed mine yet?" "Who stole my pen?" Familiar cries of the Cavern ring out from the cafeteria each May. Everyone collapses on the floor and frantically tries to reach his neighbor who will, of course, write the most complimentary phrases!

Illustrious sponsor goes daffy! Mrs. Steers takes refuge under Mexican hat as she counts Cavaleon payments.

Every-other Thursday morning journalists arrive at Gables at 7 A.M. Folding and inserting ROTOS are the order of the day.

Quill and Scroll, journalism honorary society, holds a party for new members twice each year. Head for the food!

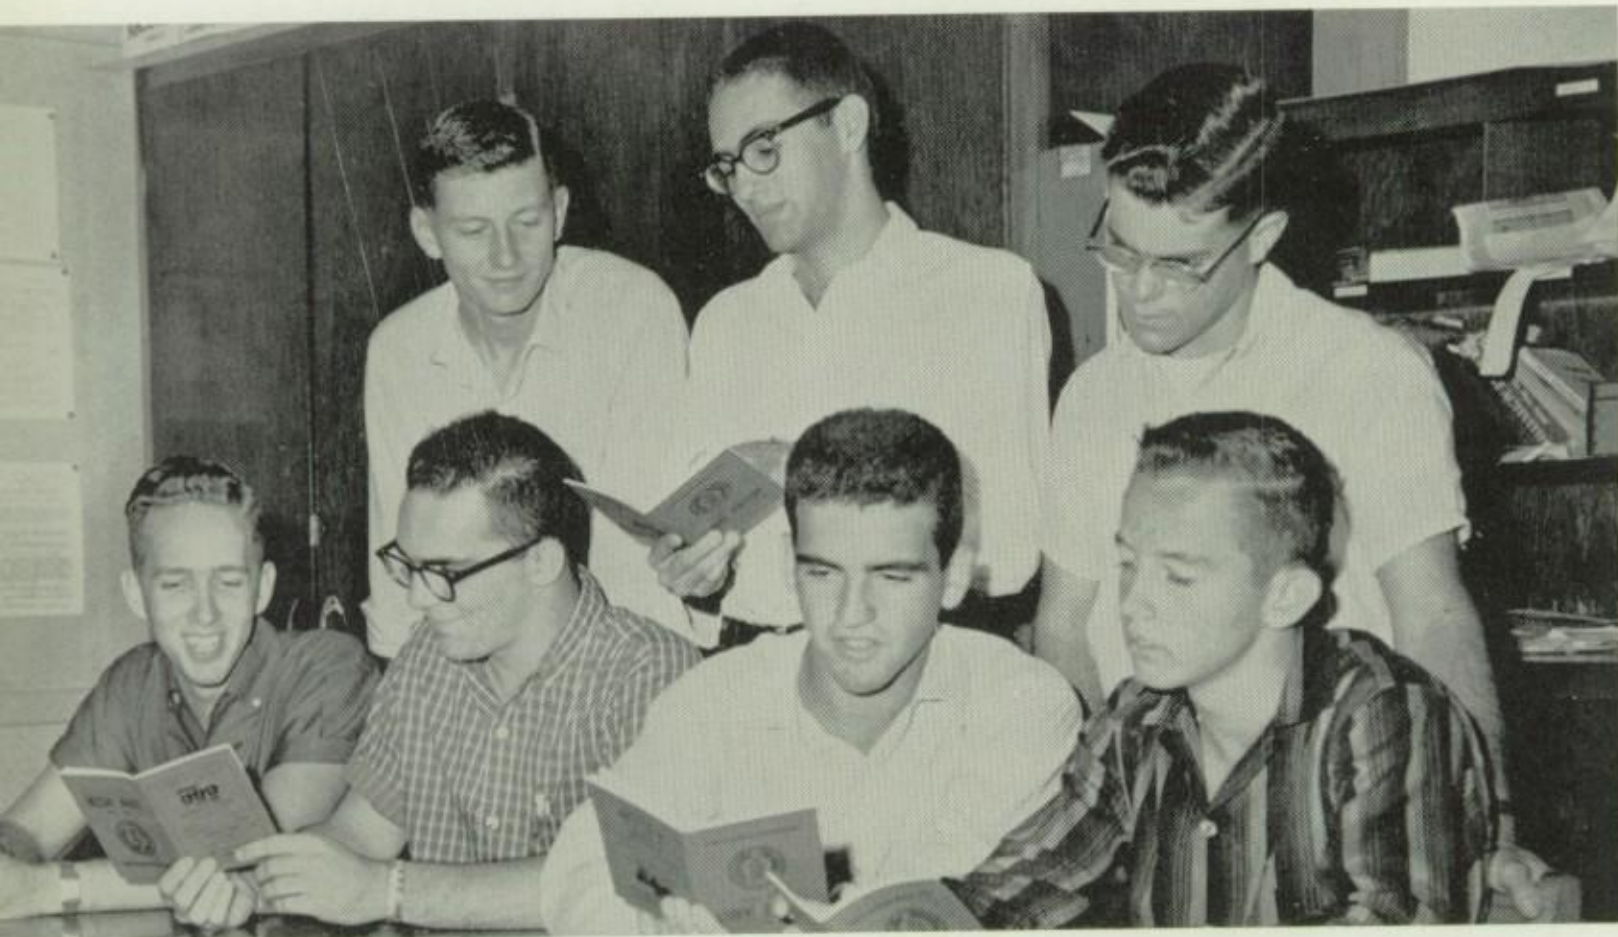

Cavaleon Organizations Editors Marilyn Jensen and Susie McNeil plan to steal the NHS banner for their own homeroom!

BUSY JOURNALISTS ARE ON THE GO

Dr. Joseph Murphy, director of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, gives some helpful hints to Gables journalists at the state CSPA convention. Dr. Murphy was guest speaker at the banquet of the convention held in Miami this year.

STUDENT DIRECTORY

Members of the Hi-Y Club, Rebel Chapter, look proudly over their finished product, the Student Directory. Hi-Y leaders, seated, are Cliff Ewald, chairman of the directory committee, Tony Rossman, Tom Suarez, and Randy Cox. Standing are Bill Criswell, Chris Woodman, and Steve Billings.

Cliff Ewald
Chairman of Directory Committee

HANDBOOK

THE LAST WORD

The Ides of March have come and gone and with them went CAVALEON 1959. We are finding it hard to adapt to a life of ease; no pictures to take, no captions to write, and (the one we miss most of all) no staff to scream at.

In reality, our staff has proven to be very capable and ingenious. Even though, on more than one occasion, we were compelled to use force (flying books, pencils, and words) we sincerely appreciate the cooperation they have given us. By the way, which angelic staff member stole all the rulers???

Our thanks also go out to the owners of the Rare Bird Farm and the Parrot Jungle for all the assistance they gave us, although the birds at these establishments weren't in the least bit agreeable. We found that many of them are in dire need of psychiatric help. But then birds will be birds . . .

Last but not least is our vote of thanks to the rarest bird of all—Mrs. Chris Steers. Without her guidance and quick wit we couldn't have survived the year.

Dee Garty and Ruth Spirer

Co-Editors-in-Chief

ANSWER TO THE LAST WORD

Hey, you guys (Ruth and Dee),

Your kind words touch us deeply, but they fail to sooth our bruises. Many of us are suffering from migraine headaches, due to flying typewriters, books, and rulers (which were found in your drawer after the CAVALEON went to press). Your aim will do, but the form's no good. Now . . .

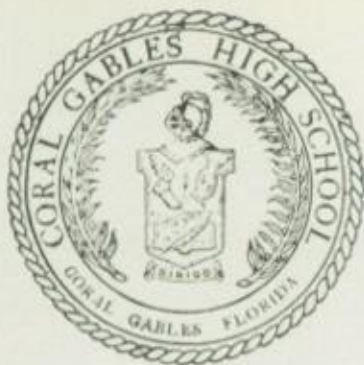

Speaking of birds . . . you two fill the bill; your cackling still haunts us as we roost on the rafters each night, soothing our ruffled feathers. You were the wardens and room 504 was our jail . . . It was lucky that we didn't fly the coop, jailbirds though we were, but not stool pigeons.

We flew around beating our wings against the walls to the tune of "Lullaby of Birdland" until "sunny" March, when CAVALEON '59 flew to Texas. At first you claimed it was going to be easy but you both conceded that we had vast chores to do. We started on our dummy sheets only to be discouraged at their dumbness (they could not talk back but you did). Then came the pictures, captions, and copy. To our disgust you gave us your famed comment on these pages, "You Birds, do better, or else!" But what could you expect, we were only working for peanuts . . .

It goes without saying that in this book there are mountains of pictures and words that are readable, but also you will find a part of us. We will never forget our feathered friends, who worked to produce this year's CAVALEON.

With ruffled but happy pride,

THE STAFF

Mr. Rath speaks:

Coral Gables Senior High School has become nationally recognized throughout our country as a symbol of merit and distinction. Wherever our graduates go, they are met with that special flash of recognition at the mention of our school.

Many Gables students have received awards for excellence in various fields of endeavor. Those of our student body who have not won individual awards have still contributed to our reputation through their excellent attitude, high scholastic standards, school spirit, and good sportsmanship. Many students have given hours of their personal time in service to their school, for which I am most grateful. All of us are winners, in that we profit from the fame and good name of our school.

I welcome this opportunity to thank the members of our faculty for their hard work and deep interest in each student's development. They are dedicated to the cultivation of high standards of excellence in our students.

To the Class of 1959 we pledge our efforts to keep high the shield of the Crimson and Grey. We will not waver in our determination to keep Coral Gables High School moving forward on its present course of leadership.

Dear Kathy,

The days of fable are coming to a close but I hope our friendship will never end. I have really enjoyed knowing you this year and being in drama with you. You are such a sweet and pretty girl, and I will never forget all the long talks we had. I don't know what I would have done without you to advise me some of these "tricks". You are a true friend and I will never forget you. Keep up your acting and maybe someday you will be a great star. Maybe I'll see you in New York. In closing, I want to wish you all the luck and happiness and best things that life has to offer, for you are most deserving of them.

Congratulations

I guess I'll continue down here.
It really has been fun getting to know you so well. We have had some crazy times together in chemistry, history, and don't forget G.P.E. You have a special something that makes you a very valuable friend. I hope our friendship will grow and that we will see a lot more of each

Kathy,

It has been a lot of fun knowing
you. We've made it
thru 100% lunch lines

and an Drama
Class invitation fun from high school

Hope to see you sometime

Dear Kathy,
For years I loved your page
(and how!!) & then I met you & I still love you daddy. Best of everything in the future, good luck always,

Love
